Rule 1: Determine your incomings

Determine your outgoings

Tip: Be realistic and factor in expenses such as car running costs and account fees

Tip: Take control

Define financial independence

Tip: Consider the annual income you require for your lifestyle goals rather than a lump sum amount

Create a budget

Tip: Drive the cheapest car you can afford

Tip: When creating an investment portfolio, diversification between asset classes is key

Tip: Sacrifice now for earlier financial independence

Tip: Compound interest is the only truth in money

Tip: Just do something!

Tip: Stick to your long term plan during difficult market conditions

A Short and Plain Exposition of the Old Testament

"Before the American Civil War, men and women who imagined a multiracial American society (social visionaries) included Protestant hymns and psalms in their speeches and writings. Music affirmed the humanity and equality of Indians and blacks. Singing and reading Protestant hymns encouraged community formation that led to American human rights activism in the 19th and 20th centuries"--Provided by publisher.
