Intro

Welcome to this interview training tutorial.

I would follow five core principles as a manager. These are LEADING PLANNING, ORGANIZING, STAFFING and CONTROLLING. I would LEAD by example and take full responsibility, not only for my own actions and performance, but also that of my team.

First and foremost, I believe it is essential to set high standards and expectations from the outset. If a team knows you, as their manager, will only accept the best they are far more likely to perform well without being closely managed

First and foremost, as a manager, it is important to understand the causes of low morale. Low morale is usually caused by either wasted potential, people feeling badly treated a lack of communication, not recognizing hard work and also unrealistic expectations.

Each generation of employee requires a different method of management and I believe I have the necessary skills and attributes to adapt when needed.

The important things to consider when letting members of staff go is to ensure you have followed due process and have held regular performance meetings to give them the opportunity to rectify the situation, if applicable.

Whenever I have to deliver bad or negative news to a team, always get straight to the point and deliver it with confidence and clarity.

My 90 day plan would consist of 5 key stages. First and foremost, I would obtain a clear brief from you, the senior management team, to ascertain what you want me to focus on, and what you want me to achieve in this role.
