Idgham Kamil is a crucial concept in Tajweed, the science of Quranic recitation. It involves the complete merging of two letters, resulting in a single, stressed sound. Understanding and mastering Idgham Kamil is essential for reciting the Quran with proper pronunciation and adherence to the rules established to preserve its original sound, improving both the clarity and the spiritual depth of the recitation. It's a key element in achieving accurate and beautiful Quranic readings.

Ma- rif-e-mathnavi

Jalaloddin Rumi's Masnavi-ye Ma'navi, or 'Spiritual Couplets', composed in the 13th Century, is a monumental work of poetry in the Sufi tradition of Islamic mysticism. For centuries before his love poetry became a literary phenomenon in the West, Rumi's Masnavi had been revered in the Islamic world as its greatest mystical text. Drawing upon a vast array of characters, stories and fables, and deeply versed in spiritual teaching, it takes us on a profound and playful journey of discovery along the path of divine love, toward its ultimate goal of union with the source of all Truth. In Book Two of the Masnavi, the second of six volumes, we travel with Rumi toward an understanding of the deeper truth and reality, beyond the limits of the self. Alan Williams's authoritative new translation is rendered in highly readable blank verse and includes the original Persian text for reference. True to the spirit of Rumi's poem, this new translation establishes the Masnavi as one of the world's great literary achievements for a global readership. Translated with an introduction, notes and analysis by Alan Williams and including the Persian text edited by Mohammad Este'lami.

Emanations of Grace

Annemarie Schimmel, one of the world's foremost authorities on Persian literature, provides a comprehensive introduction to the complicated and highly sophisticated system of rhetoric and imagery used by the poets of Iran, Ottoman Turkey, and Muslim India. She shows that these images have been used and refined over the centuries and reflect the changing conditions in the Muslim world. According to Schimmel, Persian poetry does not aim to be spontaneous in spirit or highly personal in form. Instead it is rooted in conventions and rules of prosody, rhymes, and verbal instrumentation. Ideally, every verse should be like a precious stone--perfectly formed and multifaceted--and convey the dynamic relationship between everyday reality and the transcendental. Persian poetry, Schimmel explains, is more similar to medieval European verse than Western poetry as it has been written since the Romantic period. The characteristic verse form is the ghazal--a set of rhyming couplets--which serves as a vehicle for shrouding in conventional tropes the poet's real intentions. Because Persian poetry is neither narrative nor dramatic in its overall form, its strength lies in an "architectonic" design; each precisely expressed image is carefully fitted into a pattern of linked figures of speech. Schimmel shows that at its heart Persian poetry transforms the world into a web of symbols embedded in Islamic culture.

Selected Poems from the Divani Shamsi Tabriz

The time has come to reveal more of Rumi than the inaccurate portrayal of a new age guru. With careful selections from his work and accompanying commentaries this book will bring readers closer to his poetry's true, traditional meaning. 'Everyone has, in their view, become my close friend but they have not sought out the secrets within me.' — Rumi

A Two-Colored Brocade

Written with rawness, honesty and pathos, these poems embrace the pain and heartbreak of loss and mourning and reveal the acute spiritual questioning that even devout believers inevitably experience. Written each day as the outpouring of a heart torn open by painful loss, this collection unfolds in a sequence that coincides with the stages of grief and healing. With deep spiritual insights, Hayward's beautiful poems shine a light on something often hidden away within Islamic discourse; the pain of loss and the wounded soul's pleas to God for explanation, restoration and solace.

A Treasury of Rumi

A compilation of Sufi beliefs and manners, this enlightening guide thoroughly explains Sufi thought and tradition. Filled with aphorisms and moral sayings collected by mystic Abu Abd al-Rahman al-Sulami from more than five generations of thinkers, this account seeks to correct the misleading interpretations of Islamic theology. The process of achieving an intimate relationship with God through virtuous conduct is explored in an informative and engaging manner. A glossary of Sufi vocabulary and an introduction to al-Sulami--placing the dervish in his historical, literary, and religious context--are included for the spiritual novice.

Pain and Passing

Rumi has become one of the best-selling poets in North America. Practically every biography highlights his encounter with Shams-i Tabrizi, the wandering mystic who became his beloved companion. Rumi had been a sober scholar, teaching law and theology to a small circle of students, but Shams turned him into a devotee of music, dance, and poetry. Then, after three years, he vanished, never to be seen again. It was Rumi's longing for the lost Shams that made him one of the world's greatest poets, celebrating him as the embodiment of the divine beloved. This book makes available for the first time in any European language first-hand accounts of Shams that have never been studied by Western scholars. When Rumi and Shams talked, members of the circle took notes, which were preserved and sometimes copied by later generations, ending up in various libraries scattered around Turkey; this book arranges them in a manner that clarifies their meaning and context, with notes and a glossary.--From publisher description.

A Collection of Sufi Rules of Conduct

Splitting the Moon tracks Joel Hayward's intriguing journey into Islam, his fascination with the mysteries of faith, his experiences and observations as a Western Muslim, and his thoughts on the state of the Ummah (Islamic community) today. He writes his poetry to capture events each day in the way that some people keep a diary, both deeply personal and reflective.

The Criminals of Islam

Offers a new way of thinking about Rumi's poetry, focusing on Rumi's place within the Sufi tradition of Islam and providing readers with an image of the mystical side of the religion-one that has love of God at its core and sublime wisdom teachings as its pathways.

Modern Afghanistan

Examining materials from early modern and contemporary North India and Pakistan, Tellings and Texts brings together seventeen first-rate papers on the relations between written and oral texts, their performance, and the musical traditions these performances have entailed. The contributions from some of the best scholars in the field cover a wide range of literary genres and social and cultural contexts across the region. The texts and practices are contextualized in relation to the broader social and political background in which they emerged, showing how religious affiliations, caste dynamics and political concerns played a role in shaping social identities as well as aesthetic sensibilities. By doing so this book sheds light into theoretical issues of more general significance, such as textual versus oral norms; the features of oral performance and improvisation; the role of the text in performance; the aesthetics and social dimension of performance; the significance of space in performance history and important considerations on repertoires of story-telling. The book also contains links to audio files of some of the works discussed in the text. Tellings and Texts is essential reading for anyone with an interest in South Asian culture and, more generally, in the theory and practice of oral literature, performance and story-telling.

Islam and Orientalism

Islamic Sufism in the West This book is a study of the phenomenon of Islamic Sufism in the West, which first began by adopting a universalist philosophical form with the Universalist Order of 'Inayat Khan. Its goal was to be in keeping with the intellectual and political landscape prevalent in the West in the early twentieth century, which used to see Sufism as disconnected from the Islamic religion. This view quickly came into conflict with the reality of Muslim Sufism which appeared with the foundation of the Western branches of the Darqawiyya Shadhiliyya. The Western Shadhiliyya tariqas and their different branches took a leading role in changing the understanding of Sufi thought prevalent in the West and directed it and gradually moved it towards its true Islamic basis. One of the most conspicuous of these is the Western branch of the Habibiyya Darqawiyya order which originated in Morocco and brought to the West, particularly the Anglo-Saxon world, the Moroccan form of Sufism based on three elements: the Maliki school in fiqh - based on the practice of the people of Madina, the Ash'arite creed in theology - to which the people of the Sunna and Community hold - and the Path of al-Junayd in Sufism. Aziz EL Kobaiti Idrissi, Ph.D. Professor of Arabic Language and Sufi Literature at the Moroccan Ministry of National Education, he is the author of four books about Islamic Sufism in the West and Sufi Literature. He has participated in many international conferences in Morocco, the United States, Egypt,

Spain, South Africa, Germany, and Macedonia. He is also the organizer of many sufi gatherings and conferences inside and outside Morocco.

Intro

To overcome a desperate situation, make a complete turn in one sudden burst.

Overturned water doesn't return to the tray.

The smart hawk hides its talons..

A kite breeding a hawk.

Entering the village, obey the village.

The eyes are the mirror of the soul.

Giving birth to a baby is easier than worrying about it.

As the cherry blossom is considered foremost among flowers, so the warrior is foremost among men.

Good medicine is bitter to the mouth.

Early rising benefits you three pence.

Wisdom gotten from age is better than the shell of a tortoise.

One blind man leads the crowd.

Time flies like an arrow.

The winds of tomorrow will blow tomorrow.

One man's fault is another's lesson.

The mouth is the origin of disasters.

A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step

Child of a frog is a frog.

Don't let your daughter-in-law eat your autumn eggplants.

Poke a bush, a snake comes out.

With the first glass a man drinks wine, with the second glass the wine drinks the wine, with the third glass the wine drinks the man.

The neighbour's lawn is always greener.

Drunken life, dreamy death.

Meeting is the beginning of parting.

Strength is weakness.

After the rain, the earth hardens.

Repentance never comes first

A bad wife spells a hundred years of bad harvest.

What's good for the goose is good for the gander.

A good retreat is better than a bad stand.

God made time, man made haste.
A good laugh and a good night's sleep are the best cures in the doctor's book.
The longest road out is the shortest road home.
A trout in the pot is better than a salmon in the sea.
Better good manners than good looks.
Where the tongue slips it speaks the truth.
You've got to do your own growing, no matter how tall your grandfather was.
Instinct is stronger than upbringing.
Never bolt your door with a boiled carrot.
Perseverance is the mother of good luck.
Patience is a poultice for all wounds.
Never burn a penny candle looking for a halfpenny.
A sword, a spade and a thought should never be allowed to rust.
A constant drip wears a hole in a stone.
When the cat is out the mice will dance.
Learning is the desire of the wise.
Character is better than wealth.
Even black hens lay white eggs.
It's not a delay to stop to sharpen the scythe.
Hindsight is the best insight to foresight.
There's no use boiling your cabbage twice.
Climate is what you expect. Weather is what you get.
In the land of the blind, the one-eyed man is king.
We are all in the gutter, but some of us are looking up at the stars.
Take the world nice and easy, and the world will take you the same.
Two people shorten the road.

A cabin with plenty of food is better than a castle with none.

A sword in the hands of a drunken slave is less dangerous than science in the hands of an immoral man.

The guard's sleep is the lamplight of the thief.

When the snake is old, the frog will tease him.
