Jacobsen, was a Danish industrialist and philanthropist best known for founding the brewery Carlsberg

In the 1840s he had come to realise that production of beer, which had until then been done in numerous small breweries, now had to be based on scientific methods and to be industrialised Starting in 1844, he established his brewery Carlsberg (named after his son, Carl Jacobsen), in Valby on the outskirts of Copenhagen, on a site where it has remained since Being extremely scrupulous as for the securing of high quality beer, in 1875 he founded the Carlsberg Laboratory

This conflict was the theme of a debated Danish TV drama series aired in 1997

His son Carl Jacobsen created one of the largest private art collections of his time
