Runaway Love: I never thought that, on my wedding day, I would literally bolt from my wedding, and into the arms of a grumpy mountain man. Emmett offers me a much-needed respite from the chaos, inviting me into his cabin to "hide out" until all the wedding guests leave. But I never think that we will get stuck together for days in the one-bed cabin during a major snowstorm, completely cut off from the outside world. Finding Sunshine: I'm 100% focused on my daughter, I don't have time for socializing, dating, or falling for a grumpy mountain man whose family owns a Christmas Tree Farm. But Knox is constantly there, offering support and friendship and unknowingly reminding me that I'm still a hot-blooded woman and not just a mother. Because Christmas is his job, Knox has completely lost his Christmas spirit, but in return for his generosity, I'm determined to help him find it once more. Reviving Hearts: A long time ago I fell in love with my brother's best friend, Heath. We kept our relationship a secret, knowing my brother would never approve. I had faith that in time we would come clean and declare our love to the world, but Heath broke things off before that could ever happen. I fled from my hometown and vowed never to return. Now I've inherited my grandmother's Inn and I have no choice but to go back. It's not as simple as just selling the property, it needs to be renovated first. When the realtor said he knew just the guy, I never suspected it would be Heath. The moment he steps back into my life, I can't deny that the attraction is even greater than it was all those years ago.

More than twenty years in the making, Country Music Records documents all country music recording sessions from 1921 through 1942. With primary research based on files and session logs from record companies, interviews with surviving musicians, as well as the 200,000 recordings archived at the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum's Frist Library and Archives, this notable work is the first compendium to accurately report the key details behind all the recording sessions of country music during the pre-World War II era. This discography documents--in alphabetical order by artist--every commercial country music recording, including unreleased sides, and indicates, as completely as possible, the musicians playing at every session, as well as instrumentation. This massive undertaking encompasses 2,500 artists, 5,000 session musicians, and 10,000 songs. Summary histories of each key record company are also provided, along with a bibliography. The discography includes indexes to all song titles and musicians listed.

M. Kienholz is one of the Northwest's most versatile poets. Amy Woodward Fisher, former chairman of Washington State's Poetry Day, described Kienholz' style as incorporating "rhythm and imagery;" however, her poetry has an even broader definition. Her historical poetry ranges like a world traveler through human pathos, achievement, and brutality. Here, she addresses experiences of Native Americans, Chinese, and Japanese in the West, presents incisive descriptions of Northwest personalities and biographical sketches of more than thirty New World explorers. Her children's poetry can be enjoyed equally by parents and children. She gives her animals personalities and dramatizes their worlds. Kienholz' love poetry covers all the convolutions of the mating game. Much humor is evident in her serious poems, as well as in her "doggerel and other stuff." Kienholz' skillful use of poetic devices provides teachers with tools to explain poetry to students. Her poetry has won honors in many competitions as listed in the Appendix. The seven adventures in this volume of poetry: Image and Imagination A to Z Menagerie Walk Through Washington State Pearls of the Orient Hound Dog's Book of Doggerel and Other Stuff We Love Explorers of the Western World

It is said that Bascom Lamar Lunsford would "cross hell on a rotten rail to get a folk song" -- his Southern highlands folk-song compilations now constitute one of the largest collections of its kind in the Library of Congress -- but he did much more than acquire songs. He preserved and promoted the Appalachian mountain tradition for generations of people, founding in 1928 the Mountain Dance and Folk Festival in Asheville, North Carolina, an annual event that has shaped America's festival movement. Loyal Jones pens a lively biography of a man considered to be Appalachian music royalty. He also includes a "Lunsford Sampler" of ballads, songs, hymns, tales, and anecdotes, plus a discography of his recordings.

Includes the first 3 (of 6) books in the Recompense series: RECOMPENSE: In a nation built upon lies, the truth is a dangerous secret. Born into Capernica's lowest social tier, Jack Holloway gambles on the one chance available to advance—testing into Military caste. But if she fails the stringent physical standards and her friend Will succeeds, she won't be allowed to see him again for twenty years. Meanwhile, Capernican girls are vanishing. Jack's score lands her on an investigative team where she is to serve as bait. The case leads back forty-seven years to a series of high-profile cover-ups linked to Capernica's tumultuous formation. But nothing prepares Jack and her partner Ethan for the face that emerges from the lawlessness of the past. BETRAYAL: The Provocation's over, but the Recompense has just begun. Jack and her teammates have stopped the widespread abduction of Capernica's teenage girls and neutralized the operatives living among them. Now it's time to enter the portal and take the fight to the Bruelim. Even as they prepare, disgruntled Lovers hang on the brink of revolution. Their rebellion has the potential to split Capernica along its caste lines just when the nation should be pulling together against a common enemy. Meanwhile, Jack remains crazy hopeful that upcoming Military maneuvers might once again throw her into contact with her best friend Will, while Ethan, her capable Axis partner, strongly hopes they do not. Neither she nor Ethan are prepared for the testing their partnership is about to undergo. Or the revelation of their most immediate threat. RETRIBUTION: A slave in Brunay. A revolution in ashes. Jack was supposed to assassinate Governor Andromeda Macron and revert Capernica back to Capernican control. But she failed, the revolution lies in ashes, and the one person she loves more than anyone in the world has betrayed her. Alone in Brunay, she becomes an anonymous cog in the vast Bruelim slave economy, where callous wardens aren't the only threat to her safety. Then Jack discovers the key to freeing Capernica from Bruel aggression forever. But even if she managed an escape, how could she leave Will in Brunay, trapped in the body of a Berkam? The Recompense series contains high stakes, sweet romance, and unforgettable characters. Got time for a binge read? You've just found your next dystopian indulgence.
