Public Sex Erotica: 10 Steamy Public Sex Story Shorts (Erotica Anthologies - Volume 4) In this public sex erotic book, the thrill of having sex in a public setting, combines exhibitionism and voyeurism into 10 steamy public sex stories that are sure to titillate one's kinky imagination. Story 1 - Risque Cinema Story 2 - Roadside Assistance Story 3 - Late Night Trash Run Story 4 - Room Service Story 5 - Cab Ride Story 6 - Dressing Room Story 7 - Pool Side Story 8 - Lunch Hour Story 9 - Parking Garage Story 10 - Coat Check (book excerpt) Elena closed the sliding patio door and took a long gulp of her iced tea before setting the glass down on one of the three patio picnic tables. She walked over to the deep end of the pool and dropped her towel down onto the pool deck as she dipped a foot into the water. The water was probably close to body temperature and its surface rippled gently against the breezes that were coming down from the surrounding mountains. Elena kicked off her sandals as she looked up towards their neighbor's house, and immediately noticed the blinds moving in one of their upper bedroom windows. Elena and Robert's neighbors were a slightly older couple. In their forties, the wife worked as a nurse in town and the husband worked from home doing some consulting work for a major company. Elena had often caught the husband peeking out of their windows at her when she was either taking a swim in the pool or laying out sunbathing. Being a bit of an exhibitionist, Elena didn't mind, and would often either go topless when she swam or sunbathed, or go completely nude. She often envisioned their neighbor masturbating while he peered down at her through the blinds, and she admittedly positioned herself and strutted her nakedness deliberately as her way of toying and "playing" with him. Feeling a bit of an instigator today, Elena decided to push the envelope of exhibitionism even further. Elena untied her bikini top and tossed it next to her towel on the pool deck before then sliding off her bikini bottom as well. Standing naked on the edge of the pool, Elena noticed the neighbor's blinds move again before opening just a bit wider. She then took her hair out of the ponytail that she had it in and ran her fingers through her long dark blonde hair, as if posing for a photographer who was taking her picture for Playboy. Elena then dove into the deep end of the pool and swam under water the full length of the pool before surfacing on the other end. Coming up out of the water, Elena swept her hair back over her head and took a deep breath of air as she bobbed in the shallow end of the pool. It was all she could do to keep from smiling as she imagined all the carnal things her neighbor was doing behind his blinds next door. Was his hand rubbing against the crotch of his pants as he viewed Elena's naked body? Or, were his pants already down around his ankles pleasuring himself as he watched the show next door? One Night Only “Seduce me: is it an invitation or a command...or, somehow both?” In Seduce Me, Michele Slung’s first erotic anthology since her acclaimed collections Slow Hand and Fever, a dozen tantalizing stories explore the act of seduction in its infinite manifestations. Each tale—written expressly for this collection—plays with the question: What is it to be seduced? Meet Rebecca, whose impulsive visit to a piercing parlor turns unexpectedly hot; Martin, a butler whose upper lip isn’t all that’s stiff; Plum, a Japanese lady of pleasure with a mischievous yen for after-hours adventure; Karl, a young husband with a plan for his domestic-goddess wife; and Drew, literally led down the garden path by a new neighbor. These are just a few of the lovers whose moments of seduction (and ecstasy) will leave you craving more.

On the first leg of her trip, she meets a pretty French girl in the bar car, and before long the two women are getting tipsy. They return to their seats on opposite ends of the car, where Jade is shocked but excited to watch Adele give her a sexy show. After the two women exchange a brief but passionate exchange surrounded by other distracted passengers, Jade is surprised to learn that a high-school senior traveling with her father had been spying on them the whole time. When the girl leaves her seat and motions for Jade to join her in the train’s public lavatory, Jade can’t resist having another exciting fling hidden from view of the other passengers... If Jade is so interested in playing the submissive role, how would she like to be Hannah’s slave for a week? For her first test as a slave, Hannah takes Jade to a fancy restaurant and demands that she satisfy her under the table while she eats dinner pretending like nothing is happening. When Jade passes this first test, Hannah takes her home and ties her up to her four-poster bed, where she takes maximum advantage of her helpless but delighted friend... Book 34: The Masseuse When Jade is feeling particularly needy one night, she searches online for a personal masseuse. When she sees an intriguing listing for tantric massage, she clicks on the link and is surprised to see graphic illustrations of the company’s Goddesses massaging a man and woman’s private areas. Intrigued, Jade books a personal appointment and when she shows up at the masseuse’s private studio, she’s greeted by a sexy African-American girl in a revealing bodysuit. For the next ninety minutes, she’s teased and feted with the most intimate massage she’d ever received... Book 35: Too Close for Comfort When Jade travels to Miami to visit her long-lost brother, she’s surprised when his wife takes her aside and confides that they haven’t had sex in months. The two women decide to go on a beach date to get away from the house, but when Gabriella reveals that she’s becoming attracted to other women, things begin to get complicated. But while they’re trying on new bikinis at the department store, one thing leads to another and they end up having a passionate tryst in the dressing room. After sharing a long heart-to-heart chat at the beach, Jade finds herself becoming more and more attracted to her sister-in-law... Jade’s Erotic Adventures: Jade’s Erotic Adventures is a series of stories following the adventures of recent divorcée Jade, who embarks on a journey of sexual reawakening when her passionless marriage dissolves. Best S/M Erotica, Volume 2

This anthology of four erotic short stories explores the human desire for arousal and sexual interaction. The characters look to the new and untried because erotica is, after all, uncertain, and the uncertainty adds to the spice. The theme of these stories is that people enjoy pushing the envelope, finding new things that turn them on, and new ways to use that arousal. Three of the stories (The View From a Darkened Room, A Week in Paradise and New Paths, Open Doors) are available as separate ebooks and one (When Plans Go Wrong) is new and unpublished.

Giselle's Best Fetish Erotica

Best Women's Erotica of the Year, Volume 3 delivers the kind of sexy stories you want most: daring, bold, and surprising tales of women who pursue their boundless passions anywhere and everywhere. Edited by Rachel Kramer Bussel, winner of multiple Independent Publishing Book Awards, these scintillating scenarios turn the tables on how women are "supposed" to behave. Instead, these uninhibited vixens indulge in their favorite fetishes, do deliciously intimate "Body Shots," and get tied up with "Red Satin Ribbons." They pose nude, dress up, and roleplay, always obeying their most exhilarating impulses. These lusty ladies take your most cherished, private fantasies—from making a sex tape, to taking part in a thrilling threesome, to having a stud delivered to your door hot and ready—and make them come alive. Written by beloved authors Abigail Barnette, Annabel Joseph, and Charlotte Stein along with several genre newcomers, these are erotic encounters you'll want to savor again and again and again...

Best Women's Erotica of the Year

Award-winning author Giselle Renarde has written erotic fiction for hundreds of anthologies, and her work is anything but ordinary. Giselle's Best Fetish Erotica includes quirky original stories and fantastic fan favourites to tickle unexplored regions of your sexual mind. Surrender to temptation today!

Giselle's Best Fetish Erotica

A newly revised and updated edition of the bestselling collection of contemporary erotic fiction, this anthology of erotic short stories has been revised and expanded with new sensual tales especially commissioned for the volume. So it is that Vicki Hendricks, Michael Hemmingson, Thomas Roche, Marilyn Jaye-Lewis, Mark Pritchard, and Stewart Home contribute original works to a collection already distinguished by such major names as Kathy Acker, Samuel Delany, Clive Barker, Leonard Cohen, and Anne Rice.

The Mammoth Book of Erotica

Erotic Stories is a treasury of amorous tales from around the world, ranging from ancient Greek myths to modern stories of longing and lust. From the innocent yearning of Daphnis and Chloe evoked by Longus to the sadomasochism of Pauline Réage's Story of O, this anthology explores human desire across the ages in all its dark complexity. Whether intensely raw or subtly insinuating, the short stories gathered here—by writers as different as Boccaccio and Chekhov, Anaïs Nin and Allan Gurganus—are calculated to unsettle and arouse. Here too are scenes from such classic novels as Choderlos de Laclos's Les Liaisons Dangereuses and Nicholson Baker's The Fermata, from Junichiro Tanizaki's The Key and Sarah Waters's Tipping the Velvet. Accounts of ardor and transgression also flow from unexpected pens: an astonishingly explicit scene from Edith Wharton's unfinished "Beatrice Palmato," for example, and Guy de Maupassant's heated "Idyll," which describes a young peasant woman offering her breast to a starving stranger on a train. Hunger is the fierce undercurrent to these tales: the gnawing lust of one lover for another, or the greedy pursuit of a particular inclination. The elegant depravity of an eighteenth-century French aristocrat, the dreamlike seductions of an Egyptian jinni in the form of a snake, the brutal anonymity of a highway truck-stop encounter—the stories in this richly varied collection reveal that the urge to articulate sexual desire is as inventive as it is timeless.

Erotic Stories

From the erotica anthology series that truly delivers, Best Women's Erotica 2009 is packed with risky, romantic thrills and erotic adventure - both inside the bedroom and out. The stories contained within the anthology are yet to be announced - Violet Blue is sifting through the year's best stories to find the best of the best - but the results of her search are bound to be explosive. Violet Blue is a sex columnist, author and editor of erotic fiction, as well as being the creator of popular podcast Open Source Sex.

Best Women's Erotica 2009

In Best Women's Erotica of the Year, Volume 5, award-winning editor Rachel Kramer Bussel takes readers on an outrageous journey into the world of female fantasy and desire. These sexy stories offer up wild, hot, and steamy tales from today's top authors. You'll be swept away by the sexiest business deal ever, break the rules in a future world where skin-on-skin contact is forbidden, and discover the art of getting off by phone sex. From threesomes to mermaid sex, fetishes, sex parties, and much more, these authors steam up the pages with tales of trysts, love, and lust where nothing is held back. If you're looking to escape from the everyday and discover what happens when women are ready to get totally outrageous, this book is for you. With new stories by beloved authors including Joanna Angel, Balli Kaur Jaswal, CD Reiss, Sierra Simone, and Sabrina Sol, along with newcomers to the genre, you'll savor every sizzling page.

Best Women's Erotica of the Year, Volume 5

This gathering of writings from well-known authors is a celebration of sensual love from classic times to the present day. Representing some of literature's brightest lights, this anthology aptly fulfills the many purposes of erotic writing. Included here are selections from Anaïs Nin, Anne Rice, Pat Califia, Alice Joanou, and many others.

The Mammoth Book of Erotica

This shocking collection of erotica from new publisher Venus or Vixen focuses on pleasure mixed with pain plus a smattering of fear, grief and shame just for good measure. There are stories that are hot and horrid but often funny and others that are sometimes eerily beautiful and sometimes downright creepy. Carefully and cunningly compiled under the editorship of Cara Bruce, this anthology includes tales from Lydia Lunch, Cecilia Tan, Kevin Lano, Thomas S Roche, Simon Sheppard, M Christian, Blag Dahlia, Paul Bradshaw, and many more.

Focusing specifically on the poetic construction of India, 'Mapping the Nation' offers a broad selection of poetry written by Indians in English during the period 1870–1920. Centering upon the “mapping” of India – both as a regional location and as a poetic ideal – this unique anthology presents poetry from various geographical nodal points of the subcontinent, as well as that written in the imperial metropole of England, to illustrate how the variety of India's poetical imagining corresponded to the diversity of her inhabitants and geography.

Modern Indo-Anglian Poetry

The ultimate anthology of Indian poetry from the Vedas to the present in all the major Indian languages. These My Words is an anthology of magnificent breadth, ranging from Valmiki to Agha Shahid Ali, Aurobindo to Vikram Seth, Andal to Tagore, spanning Indian poetry in its myriad forms, styles and languages. The poems speak for themselves and to each other, as folk songs and tribal epics sit alongside classical Sanskrit and formal Tamil verse. It is a companion to contemporary Bengali or Dogri. There is Ghalib in praise of love, Tukaram on religious bigotry, Ksetrayya on divine love through the erotic, Gieve Patel on identity. In Eunice de Souza and Melanie Silgado's carefully curated selection, each poem illumines exquisitely the tradition of Indian poetry.

Mapping the Nation

This two-volume reset edition draws together a selection of Anglo-Indian poetry from the Romantic era and the nineteenth century.

Golden Treasury of Indo-Anglian Poetry: 1828-1965

Jeet Thayil's definitive selection covers 55 years of Indian poetry in English. It is the first anthology to represent not just the major poets of the past half-century - the canonical writers who have dominated Indian poetry and publishing since the 1950s - but also the different kinds of poetry written by an extraordinary range of younger poets who live in many countries as well as in India. It is a groundbreaking global anthology of 70 poets writing in a common language responding to shared traditions, different cultures and contrasting lives in the changing modern world. Thayil's starting-point is Nissim Ezekiel, the first important modern Indian poet after Tagore, who published his first collection in London in 1952. Aiming for "verticality" rather than chronology, Thayil's anthology charts a poetry of astonishing volume and quality. It pays homage to major influences, including Ezekiel, Dom Moraes and Arun Kolatkar, who died within months of each other in 2004. It rediscovers forgotten figures such as Lawrence Bantleman and Gopal Honnalgere, and it serves as an introduction to the poets of the future. The book also shows that many Indian poets were mining the rich vein of 'chutnified' (Salman Rushdie's word) Indian English long before novelists like Rushdie and Upamanyu Chatterjee started using it in their fiction. It explains why Pankaj Mishra and Amit Chaudhuri have said that Indian poetry in English has a longer, more distinguished tradition than Indian fiction in English. The Indian poet now lives and works in New York, New Delhi, London, Itanagar, Bangalore, Berkeley, Goa, Sheffield, Lonavala, Montana, Aarhus, Allahabad, Hongkong, Montreal, Melbourne, Calcutta, Connecticut, Cuttack and various other global corridors. While some may have little in common in terms of culture (a number of the poets have never lived in India), this anthology shows how they are all bound by the intimate histories of a shared English language.

Mapping the Nation

In fact, under the guidance of Sri Aurobindo, several poets like Arjava, Dilip Kumar Roy, Harindranath Chattopadhyaya, KD Sethna (Amal Kiran), Themis and Nirodbaran wrote spiritual/mystical poetry for a new readership. While some welcomed the avant-garde new voices and the new Muse, others like P Lal and Nissim Ezekiel, in later years, decried such efforts as baneful influences upon the younger generation of poets. [Notably P Lal radically altered his views in his later years and welcomed spiritual and classical poetry in general] The early hostile critique of P Lal regarding spiritual poetry appears to be unfair going by the collection admirably edited by eminent poet-critic Vinayak Krishna Gokak. For, his anthology, aptly called The Golden Treasury of Indo-Anglian Poetry New Delhi: [Sahitya Akademi, first edition 1970: rept. 2006] lists the work of great many poets who composed in the pre-modern style and advocated an alternative modernity, anchored to the spiritual vision of life. Poets like Manmohan Ghose, Sarojini Naidu, M Sanyal, Prithwi Singh Nahar, Lotika Ghose, VK Gokak, Nishikanto all wrote in a variety of ways about life and literature based a vision that was antithetical to the modern-secular world view relying on the primacy of Reason and the empirical view of life. I would like to cite, in this context, a poem by M Sanyal, titled The Music of Earth: Fulfilled is my dream O sustainer supreme! And now do I till my lands; I break the sail, Till and toil, And sow the seed; But thou dost know - Thou alone, O Lord, Thou alone - When the seed is sown, What meed I am destined I am destined to receive in Thy hands! I but toil and till my lands. [From Gokak's Golden Treasury, p. 188] If one thought that the spiritual poetry of the above kind had outlived its life, one would surely be mistaken. For spiritual poetry has continued, despite the dominance of modernist trend in the West and the East. It is in this context that one welcomes the anthology Pravar in Spate by RY Deshpande. Poet Deshpande, professionally a nuclear scientist of distinction, has been drawn strongly to the path of spiritual life environed by Sri Aurobindo and the Mother. He has been writing and publishing spiritual/mystical poetry, over many decades, following the example of leading disciple-poets like Nirodbaran and Amal Kiran. Many of the poems that appear in this collection had appeared in print and some others in his blog. Happily, most are being brought together in one volume. These compositions follow the rhyme scheme.

These My Words

FROM THE INTRODUCTION BY VIVEK NARAYANAN: 'Dom Moraes, in the 1970s, quite aptly called Land's End (1962), [Jussawalla's debut book of poems], "one of the most brilliant first books since the war"... For decades, although the poet wrote regularly for newspapers and magazines and remained a beloved and giving presence in Bombay and Indian writing communities, his own work, as happened with Indian poets writing in English, had become half myth, half forgotten, circulating as wrapping for peanuts, in ever-fading spiral-bound photocopies or at best piecemeal, in slim anthologies. This book: a further 150 pages of dazzling, path-breaking "non-fictional" prose has a hundred pages of fiction, including an unfinished novel written in the sixties, and the broadest selection of Jussawalla's poetry currently available, with some extraordinary new poems.

Enlightening Studies in Indian English Poetry

Love is celebrated throughout Indian poetry - mystic love, love between humans and their God as well as passionate or affectionate love between lovers and among family and friends. This collection offers examples of the traditional Indian poetry, illustrated with some of the examples of Indian art in the British Museum's magnificent collection.

Pravar in Spate

The poets of North-East India, though belonging to diverse spaces, cultures, languages and religions, share a common bond. It is a sensibility defined by a deep connection with the land; the overarching presence of nature in their lives; the predominance of myths and tribal folklore; and the search for an identity. All this informs their poetry and gives it a unique flavour. Much of the distinctiveness of their work is also the consequence of contemporary events, often marked by violence. Like its title poem The Dancing Earth, the anthology too, is a celebration of this life, in all its unpredictable variety, richness and contradictions. So while Thangjam Ibopishak writes I Want to be Killed By an Indian Bullet and Chandrakanta Murasingh speaks of a minister with neither inside nor outside, there are also Temsula Ao's poems about her stone-people ancestors; Mamang Dai's portraits of swift rivers and primeval forests; and the Shillong poets with their mist-shrouded pine slopes, red cherries and gridlocked streets.

The Bloomsbury Anthology of Great Indian Poems

Poetry. Asian & Asian American Studies. Edited and translated from the Tamil by Chelva Kana-ganayakam. IN OUR TRANSLATED WORLD brings together, for the first time, in bilingual format, a translation of poems written in Tamil, from around the world where Tamils, over a period of several decades, have settled. The poems were written over the last three decades, and since modernity shapes contemporary perspectives in important ways, the struggle between modernity and tradition looms large in this poetry. The transition from an oppressive plantation culture to urban spaces involves numerous concerns, and they find expression in the poetry of Malaysians and Singaporeans. In Tamil Nadu physical dislocation from, say, the rural to the urban, is not seen as traumatic. More problematic, however, is the force of tradition that refuses to change with the times. For Sri Lankans, the frame is political upheaval and its consequent social and cultural disintegration. The poets who chose to live in Sri Lanka and those who moved to the West might point to different perspectives, but both are conscious of dramatic changes in their social and cultural worlds. Taken together, these poems offer an exciting and insightful representation of contemporary global Tamil experience.
