What matters to you right now?

Why have you retired five times?

How is a multi-dimensional education useful?

How do you prepare people for knowledge?

Why did it take you so long to change your focus?

Why did you change your focus?

What does it mean to Design for a Better World?

How do you feel about designers using methods you now believe are wrong?

When are established design methods appropriate?

Why do we have to design differently?

What needs to change and what can stay the same?

Should change be incremental or wholesale?

How do we design for complex global problems?

Is 'design' the best word to describe what is needed to solve these problems?

How does design dogma distract us?

Is the willingness to be wrong what defines the most impactful designers?

Why is cross-functional collaboration essential for great design?

Why is 'good enough' good enough for design?

Why are stupid questions essential?

Why are our users not who we think they are?

How do we make more Chief Design Officers?

Would it make a meaningful difference if a designer was in every C-suite?

Who's going to pay for solving our global problems?

What meaningful difference do you hope to be remembered for?

Closing out the show - Thanks, Don!
