An individual was placed on a Temporary Layoff for 6 weeks by his employer during a slow time of year. When the employee checked in 6 weeks later, the employer said there still wasn't any work available, and directed them to check back in another 6 weeks. What are my rights during a temporary layoff? Lior explains that a temporary layoff is actually a termination of employment.
A caller from - I took a medical leave for 10 months to fight breast cancer. When I was cleared to return to work, I contacted my employer. He told me that because things were slow he had to lay me off. Even though I had worked there for 11 years, I didn’t receive any severance pay.
POCKET EMPLOYMENT LAWYER.ca - I have been working at a car dealership for around 2 years. Despite consistently meeting performance quotas, my manager always singles me out and criticizes my work in front of others. Last month, she raised my sales quota by 75%! I was the only one given this new target. The owners say there is nothing they can do. What are the rights to severance pay for salespeople?
Employees should never make assumptions about their employment rights
Employees should never accept changes to the terms of their employment
Employees should never accept a verbal termination
Employees should never call the Ministry of Labour if they lose their job
Employees should never accept an unfair performance review
Employees should never sign an employment contract without having it reviewed
A caller from - I worked as a labourer in a warehouse for 12 years. I was just let go and offered a severance package with 6 weeks’ pay. How is severance pay calculated? Was I given enough for the amount of time I worked for them? What is severance pay for a labourer?
A caller from - I was demoted 3 weeks ago from a middle manager position to a clerical job, dropping my pay by $14,000. They said it was the only job they had available. Now I report to somebody who used to report to me. I have been working there for 25 years. What recourse do I have? Do I have to accept a demotion?
