Brave New Words

Winner of a 2008 Hugo Award, this new paperback takes readers on spectacular tour of the language created by science fiction. From "Stargate" to "Force Field," this dictionary opens a fascinating window into an entire genre, through the words invented by science fiction's most talented writers, critics, and fans. Each entry includes numerous citations of the word's usage, from the earliest known appearance forward. Drawn not only from science fiction novels and stories, citations also come from fanzines, screenplays, comics, songs, and the Internet.

Children of Lovecraft

Fourteen original stories inspired by the influential horror writer, including tales by Laird Barron, Caitlín R. Kiernan, Gemma Files, and Brian Evenson. Compiled by Hugo and Bram Stoker Award-winning editor Ellen Datlow, these original stories of the supernatural employ H. P. Lovecraft's trademark terror of the cosmic unknown. A fresh generation of writers have been set free to play in his playground, exploring new themes and new horrors. In "Oblivion Mode" by Laird Barron, a revenge-fueled woman and her ragtag band confront a vampiric baron. Rumored to have belonged to a Donner Party survivor, a jade figurine winds its way through many different hands and centuries, spreading evil along the way in Caitlín R. Kiernan's "Excerpts for An Eschatology Quadrille." In Gemma Files's "Little Ease," a pest exterminator meets a woman researching Enochian—the language of angels—and makes a horrific discovery in the walls of a building. A woman's new pair of bifocals comes with a warning she should take seriously in "Glasses" by Brian Evenson. Also included are tales by Siobhan Carroll, Orrin Grey, Richard Kadrey, A. C. Wise, Brian Hodge, Stephen Graham Jones, John Langan, Maria Dahvana Headley, David Nickle, and Livia Llewellyn. "The power of this anthology shows in that it's not only a must for Lovecraft fans, but for any fan of solid, mature, and mind-boggling weird fiction, courtesy of one of the finest editors in the industry." —New York Journal of Books "You don't need to be a fan of H.P. Lovecraft to enjoy the quality storytelling in this book. If you are, though, you might enjoy it even more." —Horrible Book Reviews

H. P. Lovecraft's Tales in the Cthulhu Mythos - A Collection of Short Stories (Fantasy and Horror Classics)

Some of the best from the golden age of weird fiction pulps (the 1930s and 1940s). Includes Tales of Magic and Mystery, Strange Tales of Mystery and Terror, Horror Stories, Strange Stories, and more.

Rivals of Weird Tales

A collection of short stories set in the world of the Twilight Reign series. Eleven stories that add further colour and shape to the epic story of the Twilight Reign series - this is an essential volume for Tom Lloyd's many fans. The history of the Land may remember the slaughter at Moorview or the horror of Scree's fall, but there were other casualties of the secret war against Azaer - more tales surrounding those bloody years that went unrecorded. In the shadow of memorials to the glorious dead, these ghosts lie quiet and forgotten by all but a few. A companion collection to the Twilight Reign quintet, these eleven stories shine a rather different light on the Land. Look past the armies and politics of the Seven Tribes and you will find smaller moments that shaped the course of history in their own way. But even forgotten secrets can kill. Even shadows can have claws.

The God Tattoo

In the Lovecraftian universe there exists many terrible and horrifying things, from extraterrestrial gods and portentous nightmares, to zealous cults, supernatural beasts and beyond. Perhaps some of the most terrifying imagery, however, originates from Lovecraft's hellish cities. This volume contains a collection of some of Lovecraft's most chilling horror fiction all containing reference to one of his nightmarish cities. A fantastic collection of classic horror fiction highly recommended for lovers of the genre. The stories include: "The Nameless City", "What the Moon Brings", "The Dream-Quest of Unknown Kadath", "The Dreams in the Witch House", "Through the Gates of the Silver Key", and "The Quest of Iranon". Other notable works by this author include: "At the Mountains of Madness", "The Rats in the Walls", and "The Shadow Over Innsmouth". Read & Co. is publishing this classic collection of short stories now in a new edition complete with a dedication by George Henry Weiss.

H. P. Lovecraft's Tales of Strange Cities - A Collection of Short Stories (Fantasy and Horror Classics)

Upon his untimely death, H.P. Lovecraft, the early twentieth-century master of weird fiction, left behind descriptions of 221 unwritten stories. Some were only a few ambiguous words long, others were complete plot outlines, and all of them died with their author. Now, 70 years later, writers from all over the country have come together to bring these untold stories to life. The only requirement for the writers: to create a piece that fulfilled every part of Lovecraft's original vision. The results are as varied as the artists behind them. Inside this book waits horror, science fiction, comedy, memoir, experimental text art, and one extremely short novel. Some of these stories will take away your worries. Others will take away your sleep. And a few will take you to another world, a world where weird fiction still lives, and the way home may prove difficult to find indeed.

A Commonplace Book of the Weird

Collects fantasy, horror, fairy tales, and gothic stories chosen from the past year, including works by Ursula K. LeGuin, Neil Gaiman, and Bill Lewis.

The Year's Best Fantasy and Horror

This award-winning horror anthology is the "yardstick by which future ghost fiction will be measured"—featuring Tanith Lee, Joyce Carol Oates, and others (Publishers Weekly, starred review). Award-winning anthologist Ellen Datlow—praised by William Gibson as "the genre's sharpest assembler of strange, dark fictions"—is determined to prove that ghost stories still possess the power to chill modern readers to the marrow. So she reached out to a list of varied and talented authors and invited them to scare the heck out of her. The resulting anthology redefines the ghost story, venturing beyond the accustomed tropes and into horror's true realm: the unknown. The Dark takes a nuanced and disquieting look at the tormented and unquiet dead; the darkness in us, the living; and the sometimes tenuous boundary between the two. Under the covers of The Dark, you will find a gathering of sixteen unique ghost stories, deftly penned by authors versed in the argot of the damned, including Ramsey Campbell, Jeffrey Ford, Glen Hirshberg, Kelly Link, Sharyn McCrumb, Lucius Shepard, and Gahan

Wilson. This is the stuff nightmares are made of. Winner of the International Horror Guild Award for Best Anthology of the Year

The Dark

This unique collection of Arthur Machen's Greatest Occult & Supernatural Works has been designed and formatted to the highest digital standards. "The Three Impostors" is an episodic novel incorporating several weird stories, and culminates in a final denouement of deadly horror, connected with a secret society devoted to debauched pagan rites. "The Hill of Dreams" recounts the life of a young man, Lucian Taylor, focusing on his dreamy childhood in rural Wales, in a town based on Caerleon. "The Terror: — In wartime Britain, a series of unexplained murders occur with no sign of who or what is responsible. "The Secret Glory" — A public school boy becomes fascinated by tales of the Holy Grail and escapes from his repressive school in search of a deeper meaning to life. "The White People" — A young girl's diary, recounting tales told her by her nurse, and her increasingly deep delving into magic. "The Great God Pan" was at first widely denounced by the press as degenerate and horrific because of its decadent style and sexual content, although it has since garnered a reputation as a classic of horror. "The Inmost Light" — A scientist imprisons his wife's soul in a shining jewel, letting something else into her untenanted body, but the jewel is stolen. "The Shining Pyramid" — Strange arrangements of stones appear at the edge of a young man's property. He and a friend attempt to decipher their meaning before it is too late. "The Red Hand" — It focuses on a murder performed with an ancient stone axe. Arthur Machen (1863-1947) was a Welsh author and mystic of the 1890s and early 20th century. The Greatest Works of Arthur Machen - Ultimate Horror & Dark Fantasy Collection

In the Lovecraftian universe there exists many terrible and horrifying things, from extraterrestrial gods and ancient secrets to zealous cults, supernatural curses, and beyond. Perhaps some of the most terrifying imagery, however, originates from dreams or nightmares. Part of our "Fantasy and Horror Classics" imprint, this book contains a collection of Lovecraft's short horror stories all connected through the common theme of dreams. The collection includes: "The White Ship", "The Doom That Came to Sarnath", "Polaris", "Nyarlathotep", "The Cats of Ulthar", "The Nameless City", "Ex Oblivione", "Celephaïs", "Hypnos", "What the Moon Brings", "The Hound", "The Outsider", "The Dream-Quest of Unknown Kadath", "The Strange High House in the Mist", "The Dreams in the Witch House", and more. Other notable works by this author include: "At the Mountains of Madness", "The Rats in the Walls", and "The Shadow Over Innsmouth". Howard Phillips Lovecraft (1890–1937) was an American writer of supernatural horror fiction. Though his works remained largely unknown and did not furnish him with a decent living, Lovecraft is today considered to be among the most significant writers of supernatural horror fiction of the twentieth century. Read & Co. is publishing this classic collection of short stories now in a new edition complete with a dedication by George Henry Weiss.

The eleventh title in the Little Book series II is a very special one indeed. Karl Wagner was one of the finest writers and editors of his generation when he died still in his forties. His efforts as an editor, publisher, and writer earned him the Phoenix Award, the British Fantasy Award, and the World Fantasy Award. Founder of Carcosa Press, creator of Kane the mystic swordsman, and author of some of the most original and intelligent horror and dark fantasy of the eighties and nineties, his body of work remains as some of the best the genre has to offer. Stephen Jones—a multiple award-winning editor—has compiled a wonderful sampling of Wagner's work for this Little Book. Jones was gracious enough to contribute illustrations which make this book even more special.

A Little Ochre Book of Occult Stories

Survey of Modern Fantasy Literature

"Fear of the unknown--it is the essence of the best horror stories, the need to know what monstrous vision you're beholding and the underlying terror that you just might find out. Now, twenty authors have gathered to ask--and maybe answer--a question worthy of almost any horror tale: "What the #@ & % is that?" Join these masters of suspense as they take you to where the shadows grow long, and that which lurks at the corner of your vision is all too real"--Amazon.com.

The Year's Best Fantasy and Horror: Fifteenth Annual Collection

"Superstar editor Datlow makes no missteps...." —Publishers Weekly Take a terrifying journey with literary masters of suspense, including Peter Straub, Kim Newman, and Caitlín R. Kiernan, visiting a place where the other is somehow one of us. These electrifying tales redefine monsters from mere things that go bump in the night to inexplicable, deadly reflections of our day-to-day lives. Whether it's a seemingly devoted teacher, an obsessive devotee of swans, or a diner full of evil creatures simply seeking oblivion, the monstrous is always there—and much closer than it appears.

What the #@&% Is That?

Chosen from a wide variety of venues, these stories are as eclectic and varied as shadows. This volume of 2015's best dark fantasy and horror offers more than five hundred pages of tales from some of today's finest writers of the fantastique--sure to delight as well as disturb.

The Monstrous

This carefully crafted ebook: "THE WEIRD TALES - Horror & Macabre Collection" is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents. The Great God Pan was widely denounced by the press as degenerate and horrific because of its decadent style and sexual content, although it has since garnered a reputation as a classic of horror. H. P. Lovecraft praised the story, saying: "No one could begin to describe the cumulative suspense and ultimate horror with which every paragraph abounds"; he added that "the sensitive reader" reaches the end with "an appreciative shudder." Lovecraft also noted, however, that "melodrama is undeniably present, and coincidence is stretched to a length which appears absurd upon analysis." Bennett Cerf described the story as a "masterpiece". The Three Impostors is an episodic novel incorporating several weird stories, including "The Novel of the White Powder" and "The Novel of the Black Seal"

The Year's Best Dark Fantasy & Horror 2016 Edition

Steve Rasnic Tem once said his writing was filtered through "a different lens to view the world." With a style all his own, Tem has galvanized and thrilled fans of weird fiction worldwide. His efforts have earned him the Bram Stoker, World Fantasy and British Fantasy Awards. His métier is the monstrous secret, the unsettling darkness hidden within all of us. "Bedtime Story" opens with a line that defines Tem's style: "I don't know why bad things happen. There's never a good reason. They just do." The story introduces us to a nightmare conjured from the mind of a child, preparing to victimize her own father. "The Unmasking" takes us into the tortured psyche of a horribly deformed recluse obsessed with the intricacies of human skin. "Outside," one of several homages to the great H.P. Lovecraft, melds Tem's uniquely poetic style with the cosmic horror created by that twisted gentleman from Providence. "The Masque of Edgar Allan Poe" focuses on Tem's fondness for mask imagery, and how the veneer we wear on the surface can become immobile, consuming our souls. "The Doll Thief" is a deeply disturbing exercise in pathos, perversion and psychosis. In "Pulled Down to Sleep," a man fights to remain awake, knowing that sleep will doom him to a life of unspeakable nightmares. "Worms" is a frightening tale of vengeance that will literally leave your skin crawling. With "Mother Hag," Tem gives us a "grim" fairy tale about monstrous motherly love, courtesy of a grotesque, carnivorous witch.

THE WEIRD TALES - Horror & Macabre Collection

The Night Land is a horror/fantasy novel by English writer William Hope Hodgson, first published in 1912. As a work of fantasy it belongs to the Dying Earth subgenre. Hodgson also published a much shorter version of the novel, entitled The Dream of X (1912). The Night Land was revived in paperback by Ballantine Books, which republished the work in two parts as the 49th and 50th volumes of its Ballantine Adult Fantasy series in July 1972. H. P. Lovecraft's essay "Supernatural Horror in Literature" describes the novel as "one of the most potent pieces of macabre imagination ever written". Clark Ashton Smith wrote of it. In all literature, there are few works so sheerly remarkable, so purely creative, as The Night Land. Whatever faults this book may possess, however inordinate its length may seem, it impresses the reader as being the ultimate saga of a perishing cosmos, the last epic of a world beleaguered by eternal night and by the unvisageable spawn of darkness. Only a great poet could have conceived and written this story; and it is perhaps not illegitimate to wonder how much of actual prophecy may have been mingled with the poesy.

The Night Land Illustrated

This early work by E. T. A. Hoffmann was originally published in 1819. Born in Königsberg, East Prussia in 1776, Hoffmann's family were all jurists, and during his youth he was initially encouraged to pursue a career in law. However, in his late teens Hoffman became increasingly interested in literature and philosophy, and spent much of his time reading German classicists and attending lectures by, amongst others, Immanuel Kant. Hoffman went on to produce a great range of both literary and musical works. Probably Hoffman's most well-known story, produced in 1816, is 'The Nutcracker and the Mouse King', due to the fact that - some seventy-six years later - it inspired Tchaikovsky's ballet The Nutcracker. In the same vein, his story 'The Sandman' provided both the inspiration for Léo Delibes's ballet Coppélia, and the basis for a highly influential essay by Sigmund Freud, called 'The Uncanny'. (Indeed, Freud referred to Hoffman as the "unrivalled master of the uncanny in literature.") Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900's and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive. We are republishing these classic works in affordable, high quality, modern editions.

Dark Fantasy Stories

An Air Force Loadmaster is menaced by strange sounds within his cargo; a man is asked to track down a childhood friend... who died years earlier; doomed pioneers forge a path westward as a young mother discovers her true nature; an alcoholic strikes a dangerous bargain with a gregarious stranger; urban explorers delve into a ruined book depository, finding more than they anticipated; residents of a rural Wisconsin town defend against a legendary monster; a woman wracked by survivor's guilt is haunted by the ghosts of a tragic crash; a detective strives to solve the mystery of a dismembered girl; an orphan returns to a wicked witch's candy house; a group of smugglers find themselves buried to the necks in sand; an unanticipated guest brings doom to a high-class party; a teacher attempts to lead his students to safety as the world comes to an end around them... What frightens us, what unnerves us? What causes that delicious shiver of fear to travel the lengths of our spines? It seems the answer changes every year. Every year the bar is raised; the screw is tightened. Ellen Datlow knows what scares us; the twenty-one stories and poems included in this anthology were chosen from magazines, webzines, anthologies, literary journals, and single author collections to represent the best horror of the year. Legendary editor Ellen Datlow (Poe: New Tales Inspired by Edgar Allan Poe), winner of multiple Hugo, Bram Stoker, and World Fantasy awards, joins Night Shade Books in presenting The Best Horror of the Year, Volume One.

How many times have you said, the book was better? And how many times was that actually true? The cinema of the fantastic has benefitted from literary adaptations on a level unlike any other genre. With such brilliant authors as Mary Shelley, Robert Bloch, Pierre Boulle, Edgar Rice Burroughs and Robert Louis Stevenson to choose from, it's no surprise that fantastic film shares its pedigree with literary fiction. But do films never live up to their literary inspirations? Or are some movies just ... better than the books that inspired them? Join genre critics Jim Nemeth and Bob Madison for a rule-busting examination of 21 classic - and not so classic - horror, fantasy and science fiction films, and the classic - and not so classic - books that inspired them. She makes scarecrows for the locals where she lives in Kentucky to make extra money. When her scarecrows start really making money as an art form, things start getting nasty. Her abusive cruel husband wants to get his hands on the money that he knows she is hiding. What happens when things get out of hand and Maggie needs to protect herself? "A Little Trick or Treat Surprise" will sneak up on you. What starts out as a romantic love story about a little person that doesn't expect to ever find someone who can love her just as she is, takes on a sinister twist that you will not be expecting. Real Ghost Stories

Grab your copy if you dare... There's something delicious about sitting curled up cosily with a book of blood-curdling ghost stories enjoying the shivers that run down your spine, knowing that you're safe because these things happen to other people - not you. Don't they? That's what the individuals who shared these stories thought before their own soul-chilling encounters with the supernatural. Here, writer Tina Vantylar brings you 12 brand-new, modern accounts of paranormal activity that you won't find anywhere else. So turn the lamp down low, tuck a blanket around your knees and settle down to 12 nerve-shredding accounts that will make you quake with fear. Get into the spirit of things, if you will, with such chillingly readable tales as: A stroll in the park that turned to terror in On The One Hand... An anniversary break that almost broke a husband and wife in Floored... A dream home that housed a fiend in The Bad Man... The horror that waited below in Going Underground... A reminder to be careful what you wish for in Not In My Back Yard... Expect the nightmarish images in these sinister stories to linger in your mind's eye, leaving you afraid to close your heavy lids, however much you crave sleep. About the author Like many people who write about things that go bump in the night, Tina has been fascinated by phantoms and paranormal phenomena since her teens. Several macabre confrontations of her own have confirmed for her that, as Mr Shakespeare said, "There are more things in heaven and earth... than are dreamt of in your philosophy". This is the first in a series of delightfully frightful story collections.

There's nothing quite like the feeling you get when exchanging spine-tingling tales whenever there are friends together, and it's dark, and perhaps a little quiet outside ... 10,000 Ghost Stories adds a bloodcurdling twist to this tradition. Lisa Weber has created 23 ghosts that are each split at waist and neck, so that you can swap gruesome or ephemeral (or just plain nasty) body parts at random. On the opposite page, Jason Hooks stories are also split into three parts, so that every spirit has a spirited tale to match

10,000 Ghost Stories

Eve Evans brings you 20 spine-chilling tales of paranormal encounters, sure to leave you awake past dawn. Everyone has had a nightmare at one point of their life. But what if that nightmare was crouched next to your bed watching you sleep? A figure so terrifyingly darker than the unlit surroundings of your room. On some occasion or another we all have seen something out of the corner of our eyes and turned to do a double take. But what if, upon second glance, you come face to face with a being so hideous your blood turns to ice and your veins scream out in shock? Some places contain secrets, others are local lore, but some have unimaginable truth behind the stories that echo throughout the world from their walls. If you delight in short stories that give you a case of the willies, then you will devour Chilling Ghost Stories in an instant.

When a huge storm erupts, however, Eve is forced to return to her childhood home. Her father lives alone, and the house is in danger of collapsing as it's battered by wind and rain. Eve hasn't talked to her father since she ran away from home many years earlier, and she soon finds that the old man's mind is deteriorating.

Meanwhile, something seems to be in the house with him, lurking in the shadows and tormenting what's left of his sanity. Eve soon begins to discover the truth about what happened to Rebecca. A strange, ghostly figure appears in the house, and a voice cries out for revenge. The more Eve learns, the more she comes to understand that something terrible has been happening to her family for many years. She's always held her father responsible, but is there something even worse that Eve doesn't know? And is the ghost of her dead sister really lurking in the shadows of the house? How To Make a Ghost is a horror story about a haunted house, a dark family secret, and a horrific experiment that has been years in the making.

Real Ghost Stories

This is in essence a ghost story, the old fashioned kind! but it does deal with other complex family issues! Sarah Jones was a 6 year old little girl living with her family in an old house, that was the family's home in the town of Bristol, the southwest of England, set in 1974 to end of 1984. You will follow Sarah's chilly haunting memories of a ghost of a little girl Anna and her father, through Sarah's eyes as her experiences from the age of 6 become more apparent with sinister intentions. Sarah and her family will learn of the dark secrets this house holds, unknowing that a evil presense wants this secret to stay hidden and will do whatever it takes to keep it that way! This is based on true events that accured to a family in an actual house! This is one of the first of three books, a trilogy. Second is a prequel to the first set in 1860 - 1880 and the third a sequel to the first set in 1985 - 1991.

The Ghost of Anna

This is the fourth book about the supernatural by author Ruth Roper Wylde. She has a passion for collating people's own accounts about the experiences they have in all kids of locations, and at all times of day and night. From poltergeists who make people's lives a misery, to playful ghosts who turn on electric toys in the middle of the night, you will find every kind of haunting in this fascinating book. The tales come from all over Great Britain - and the common theme for them all is that they have all occurred within living memory. These aren't ancient tales of shades rattling their chains in spooky castles. These are ghosts in modern day shops, people's houses, and places of work. If you like to read about the creepy and the downright confounding - read on.

These Haunted Times

A collection of five ghost stories with a modern twist: Back Seat Driver: When the opportunity arose to become the owner of a classic British Leyland Mini, Ben jumped at the chance. While lovingly restoring the car, he started to become aware that all might not be as it seemed. After uncovering the history of the car, Ben realises his fears were correct and that the bond the previous owner had with the car had not yet been broken. Mary Papered Here: John was delighted to be finally moving out of his parent's house into his first own home. His joy was however soon shattered when he made a gruesome discovery which revealed the apartment's sinister past. Didn't I see You Earlier: Tom was becoming increasingly frustrated at people saying they saw him earlier in the day and he ignored them. Real-Life Cases of Gut-Wrenching Demon Encounters That'll Shock the Daylights out of You! With the rampant growth and exploding popularity of the occult and satanism in our societies, the spirit world has received more attention than ever before. As scary and creepy as this idea may be, there is also the belief that demonic apparitions will, on occasion, push through to our world and invade not only our homes but also our bodies. Best-Selling author Hannah J. Tidy will introduce horrific stories and experiences of demonic encounters had by normal people who've dared to play with games such as the Ouija Board. A British family went through a string of horrific tribulations that seemed to continuously escalate from bad to worse. The story began to unfold on Christmas Eve 2014, with a man, who attempted to establish contact with the dead through the board game. After the ritual, he believed that evil spirits managed to get through from the other side and take possession of his home. This caused an outburst of paranoia in the man, who then proceeded to commit a despicable act of cruelty against his pet. Prior to this event, the man had never suffered from any mental illness. He drowned the dog in a bathtub, dismembered its body, and attempted to hide the evidence by shoving the remains into a nearby drain. The neighbors noticed something wrong was going on and approach the house to investigate... You won't believe what happens next!
