There Are a Lot of Things about You, That Are Going To ...

I Will Tell that Girl that She Could Trust Her God I Would Tell that Girl that She Needs To Get into the Word of God and Find Out What the Promises of God Are for Her Life and What God Says that She Can Do and Who God Says that She Is I Would Tell Her To Slow Down Be Content and Don't Chase Me What I Tell My 14 Year Old Self Look Boys Are Great but Having One in Your Life Is Not the End-all Be-All Go Back to that 13 Year Old Self and Worry More about Your Friends You Don't Know Everything and It's Perfectly Fine that You Don't Your Mother Is There as a Resource

Between How You Think and How You Feel and Then There's a Tangible Connection between How You Think How You Feel and What You Do So Many Times When We'Re Looking at Our Lives and There Are Things about It We'Re like I Can't Believe Something Is this Way or I Can't Believe this Has Happened that Way if You Retrace Your Steps I Bet You You Can Retrace Them Back to some of the Very Words You'Ve Spoken over Your Own Life and if It's Not Your Own Words Maybe It's the Words That Other People Have Spoken over Your Life

So Many Times When We'Re Looking at Our Lives and There Are Things about It We'Re like I Can't

Believe Something Is this Way or I Can't Believe this Has Happened that Way if You Retrace Your Steps I Bet You You Can Retrace Them Back to some of the Very Words You've Spoken over Your Own Life and if It's Not Your Own Words Maybe It's the Words That Other People Have Spoken over Your Life So How Do You Fix that You Change What You Say because Guess Who's Listening I'M Not Telling You I Do Think though that What You Just Said Is Important You Just Said if My Father Doesn't Like Him It's a no-Go and It Kind Of Goes Back to What I Was Saying Earlier about Listening My Mother Used To Tell Me She Said We We Just Know It When We See It and You Just Have To Trust Us that We Can See Things You Can't See and I Was like no You Can't See Everything because You Don't See What There Are Things They Can See that You CanNot See It's like Magic It's Just like the Older You Get and the Longer You Live

There Are Things They Can See that You CanNot See It's like Magic It's Just like the Older You Get and the Longer You Live You Just Can See Things Coming a Mile Away It's Just It's Just It Just Happens but Here's the Thing with Dads Okay or if Your Dad Is Not in Your Home with Uncles or Grandfathers or Big Brothers They Have that Extra Special Gift because Not Only Can They See Maybe because of the the Years that They Have on You but They'Re Also the Guy and They Know How Guys Think and Listen Ladies

Stepping Over Myself is the life story of Ayis A. Caperonis. The book recounts how the medical mistakes and judgement errors ultimately almost cost him his life as he was diagnosed with a voluminous Brain Tumor in the cerebellum... With a slight survival chance in the surgery, he was to be the "test" to a new and dangerous surgery technique that would last nine hours and was performed by renowned surgeons in Europe. From this sudden tragic turn in his life and the numerous aftermaths Ayis A. Caperonis recounts how he managed to overlook the negative aspects of his life and resume living. Hard work in reeducation, love and God would help him go beyond what doctors ever thought would be possible....

Myself Help

Are you suffering the loss of a loved one? Feeling terribly isolated and shameful about your secret grief? Do you believe you should be over it? Are you considering seeing a therapist but believe you must be crazy to enter psychotherapy? Are you afraid to let a therapist know its been a very long time since you lost your loved one and you are still feeling lonely and devastated? Are you afraid a psychotherapist will judge you that he or she may find out you are soothing yourself by some unacceptable behavior? Have you stopped going to church? Cut yourself off from community and possibilities that have nurtured your spirit in the past? Are you just plain feeling badly about yourself? Have you ever felt any of these things? Myself Help is the story of anyone who has heard a critic in their mind, felt guilty about certain choices they've made, or felt loneliness while surrounded by loved ones. Dana Anderson shares her personal story while providing helpful tools for growth and healing. Myself Help is an inspirational tale told with humor.

I Am a Stranger Here Myself

Winner of the 2020 WILLA Literary Award in Creative Nonfiction from Women Writing the West Part history, part memoir, I Am a Stranger Here Myself taps dimensions of human yearning: the need to belong, the snarl of family history, and embracing womanhood in the patriarchal American West. Gwartney becomes fascinated with the missionary Narcissa Prentiss Whitman, the first Caucasian woman to cross the Rocky Mountains and one of fourteen people killed at the Whitman Mission in 1847 by Cayuse Indians. Whitman's role as a white woman drawn in to "settle" the West reflects the tough-as-nails women in Gwartney's own family. Arranged in four sections as a series of interlocking explorations and ruminations, Gwartney uses Whitman as a touchstone to spin a tightly woven narrative about identity, the power of womanhood, and coming to peace with one's most cherished place.

Rudyard Kipling's autobiography, Something of Myself, was the author's last work, but it has not received the serious attention it deserves. Thomas Pinney's edition of the work, supplemented by other autobiographical pieces, aims to change that. Professor Pinney, a leading textual editor currently engaged on Kipling's letters, has consulted the available source material relating to Something of Myself. He has constructed an outline of the book's composition; described the history of its publication; established a text and a set of variants; and given a critical account of the book's design and its main themes. His annotations to the work (and to the supplementary pieces) identify references and allusions, and provide a biographical context against which Kipling's selections, omissions, and distortions may clearly be seen. The extent to which Kipling's description of his life failed to match what actually happened is extraordinary. Two of the additional items presented here (Kipling's Indian diary of 1885 and the illustrations he made for his autobiographical story, 'Baa Baa, Black Sheep') are previously unpublished. Pinney shows how they, and other forms of autobiographical writing, reflect upon or complicate the narrative of Something of Myself. This carefully prepared edition sheds new light on Kipling as a man and writer.

Rudyard Kipling: Something of Myself and Other Autobiographical Writings

"A historian who has been an actor in the events which he narrates, has peculiar advantages and disadvantages. He can write with more minuteness of detail, and with a fresher and more life-like coloring. He can write with more confidence, and, drawing from his own experience and observation, is in this respect more trustworthy. On the other hand, he is more liable to be warped by prejudice, to see only the excellences and none of the defects of those with whom he has been identified, and only the defects and none of the excellences of those to whom he has been opposed, to be a partizan rather than a judge, and to make his narration little more than the reflection of his personal opinions or his personal sympathy and affection, hostility and spite. "The Church History of Isaac Backus has all the above-named excellences. To a large extent he was an eye-witness of that which he describes; and where not an eye-witness, he placed himself in closest possible connection with it by personal acquaintance with the actors, and by immediate and most diligent and thorough examination of records and other evidence. While it may be too much to say that he absolutely avoided the defects above named, yet his sound judgment, his natural candor and honesty and his elevated Christian principle, have made him as nearly free from them as perhaps any author who has written in similar circumstances." --from the Editor's Preface

David Watmough, often called Canadas senior gay male writer, tells his story through his encounters with the people he has befriended, loved, and jostled with over the years.

Myself Through Others

In Finding Myself Lost in Louisiana, author Keagan LeJeune brilliantly weaves the unusual folklore, landscape, and history of Louisiana along with his own family lineage that begins in 1760 to trace the trajectory of people's lives in the Bayou State. His account confronts the challenging environmental record evident in Louisiana's landscapes. LeJeune also celebrates and memorializes traditions of some underrepresented communities in Louisiana, communities that are vanishing or have vanished—communities including the author's own. Each section in the memoir is a journey to a fascinating place, but it's also a search for LeJeune's own sense of belonging. The book is an adventure and a pilgrimage across Louisiana to explore its future and to reckon with feelings of loss and anxiety accompanying climate disasters. LeJeune travels to Louisiana's geographic center to learn what waits there. He chases the ghosts of Hot Wells, a shuttered healing resort, and he kneels at the tomb of folk saint Charlene Richard. With every adventure, every memory, he ends up much closer to home.

Written from a life lived on the edge of society, Spinning in Circles and Learning from Myself, by author Tsara Shelton, offers an insightful and powerfully uplifting collection of ideas and stories. She shares writings on a range of subjects spanning several stages of her life with topics including womens issues, marriage, prejudice, abuse, mixed-race relationships, equality, culture, and more. Shelton a mother of four opens up about the difficult elements in her past, but offers a positive, realistic perspective on those events. As the oldest of eight children, she discusses in detail her childhood in Toronto, Ontario, and how she learned to live thanks to her brothers and her mother all on the autism spectrum. Shelton reveals how she dealt with being a pregnant teenager and how her beliefs help guide her parenting. As Shelton progresses through lifes stages of growing up, she shares the importance and validity of each stage, always with an eye for answers and an infectious joy in the never ending journey that is growing up.

The Text is Myself

Fiction. Though best known as the author of two of the earliest Beat novels (WHO WALK IN DARKNESS and THE BOLD SABATEURS), Chandler Brossard (1922-93) displayed his exuberant imagination best in the shorter works he wrote during the second half of his life, all of which are collected here. Ranging from a surrealist anti-Vietnam War novella to a folksy walking tour of a Kafkaesque Amerika, these seven works form a perfect introduction to one of the most daring writers of postwar America.

Widely considered a pinnacle in realist fiction, Tolstoy considered Anna Karenina his first real novel and Dostoevsky declared it to be "flawless as a work of art". His opinion was shared by Vladimir Nabokov, who especially admired "the flawless magic of Tolstoy's style"

Littell's Living Age

Becoming paranormal queen will be a trial by fire Riley's found the elemental throne. Beat the Pack and Deathless at their own deadly game. Embraced her destiny as a paranormal queen. That should have been the end of it, right? Wrong. So, so wrong. She's barely sat down on her cold new throne before she discovers another plot to overthrow her and threaten the Outcasts. To prove herself (again) Riley has to survive an ancient trial through the Dying Lands—a lost paranormal world filled to the brim with magic and dangerous secrets. Worse, Jasper is one of her opponents, forced to compete for the Deathless under the blood oath neither he nor Riley can break. It's official: fate hates her. Along with her traitorous former-best friend, Riley will take on the trial to prove she's the real deal, and not even a growing evil in the Dying Lands will stop her. Even if winning means giving up the things she loves most. Elemental Trial is the second book in the now complete YA fantasy Paranormal Outcasts series! If you like snarky, fast-paced fantasies full of magic, mysteries, and a slow-burn enemies to lovers romance then this series is for you!

Littell's Living Age

Are you feeling stressed? Is life all about work and responsibilities? Do you want to change your life? A time came in Vandana Sehgal's life when she was struggling with her negative mindset and was not able to find the reason of her being. She couldn't find fulfilment in work and life. In those moments she took an important decision- stand tall for a better life and to push herself beyond the limits. Giving up was not the option for her as she was not ready to accept a life filled with sufferings. She chose compliment over complaint, connection over comparison and confidence over criticism. I Love Myself has evolved from her personal learnings and her victory over the negative mindset. It aims to remind you that your life is a gift and every moment of your life holds something special. The book encourages you to believe in yourself. At the core of this book is the belief that you are the creator of your life and born with all the abilities to shape it as you wish. The real-life examples, interactive tools and simple exercises challenges you to take the ownership of your life and live it to the fullest level of fulfilment, love and gratitude.

The Artist's Way

The story of how I freed myself... from myself. I found myself at the dawn of an adventure that superseded geographical miles. From the base of a mountain of truth there was no turning back. The story began as a desire to liberate myself from the bounds of society, but at every turn there seemed to be a mirror. The story, and the meta-story of its telling, evolved into a Transformative peace of non-fiction. I would never return the same. My journey through history and culture, my passage through nexuses of spirituality and science, my battle with apathy and aggression, brought me to the rocky and elusive middle path; and it all began with my first bicycle tour and the retelling of it. Join me in the unfolding experience that is Spacetime Bicycle: The Beginning

For mature teens and young adults. Quotes The zombie apocalypse has swept in like a violent storm, and every day is a fight to survive. Yes, it's scary, and we have no guarantees that we'll live to see the next sunrise. But there's nothing we can do to stop it. We just have to let it run its course and pray that the zombies rot out soon. I'm not Rambo, Supergirl, or Xena, but I can't let worry consume me either. Just because I'm not made out of titanium, that doesn't mean I won't make it to the finish line. I've gotta stay brave and keep fighting as hard as I can and never, ever give up hope. — Val Bennett – zombie fighter & survivor I have to keep my footing, catch my breath, and keep walking the twisting path ahead. There are many huge hurdles to face. I don't know what life holds for me, but I will survive as long as I can, and I won't go down without a fight. — Sammy Evans – survivor & zombie fighter Humans are a rare and endangered species. Swallowing down our fear, we must fight to protect humanity at all costs. Protecting the human race must be our number one priority. We need to fight for the future we want, not the one that's been delivered to us. Taking back our world is a fight I will never give up on. And in my opinion, that makes every zombie hunter a very special breed of warrior. — Dean Walters - survivor & zombie hunter

Anna Karenina - The Annotated & Unabridged Maude Translation

Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoyevsky (1821 – 1881), sometimes transliterated Dostoevsky, was a Russian novelist, short story writer, and essayist. Dostoyevsky's literary works explore human psychology in the troubled political, social and spiritual context of 19th-century Russia. This translation by Constance Garnett from the original Russian is widely regarded as a reference. Garnett translated seventy volumes of Russian prose for publication, including all of Dostoyevsky's novels. Dostoyevsky's works of fiction include 17 short stories, in this edition we present 7 stories, including two of his 2 most famous works "White Nights" and "Notes From the Underground": WHITE NIGHTS, NOTES FROM UNDERGROUND, A FAINT HEART, A CHRISTMAS TREE AND A WEDDING, POLZUNKOV, A LITTLE HERO and MR. PROHARTCHIN.
