Indurare – Batseba (O genealogie a harului)

Indurare – Batseba Frumusetea Batsebei a aprins instantaneu pasiunea imparatului, dar durerea nascuta in sufletul ei a atins inima lui Dumnezeu. Intr-o clipa, la o singura privire aruncata de rege in directia ei, viata Batsebei a fost intoarsa pe dos, dupa ce acesta a poruncit sa fie adusa inaintea lui. Atunci s-a intamplat inimaginabilul, iar Batseba ajunge sa traiasca sentimente contradictorii: devine vaduva, dar, in acelasi timp, ajunge sa traiasca o viata la care un muritor de rand doar ar fi putut visa. Dar oare chiar si-a dorit ea o astfel de viata? O singura greseala poate schimba istoria, dar indurarea lui Dumnezeu poate transforma chiar si cele mai rele circumstante in ceva glorios. Din seria: O genealogie a harului Nume de barbati, unul dupa altul, sunt mentionate in primul capitol din Evanghelia dupa Matei. Dar printre toate aceste nume de tati si fii din cartea neamului lui Isus Cristos se remarca numele a cinci femei, a caror chemare mareata a fost aceea de a pava, alaturi de sotii si fii lor, calea venirii in lume a lui Mesia. Cinci femei care au schimbat lumea. Vulnerabilitatea acestor femei ori abuzul de putere al barbatilor din epoca patriarhala pot parea dure pentru noi, cei de azi. Insa emotiile pe care le traieste o femeie, indiferent de timp sau regiune, sunt universale. „O genealogie a harului” este seria de nuvele ale lui Francine Rivers, care readuc in actualitate iertarea, puterea de sacrificiu si reabilitarea.

Mark of the Lion Gift Collection

The complete 3-book historical Christian fiction series by the New York Times bestselling author of Redeeming Love and The Masterpiece. Travel to first-century Rome in this classic series and discover what has inspired millions of readers worldwide. This Collection bundles all three titles from the Mark of the Lion series into one volume. A Voice in the Wind, the first book in the trilogy, introduces readers to Hadassah, a young Jewish girl captured and sold into slavery but still holding firm to her faith in God. Though torn by her love for a handsome aristocrat, Hadassah becomes a shining beacon of light in the darkness and depravity around her. In An Echo in the Darkness, Marcus, a wealthy Roman aristocrat touched by Hadassah's sincere belief, begins to wonder if there's more to this life. As he continues to search for meaning and faith, he is led by a whispering voice from the past that could set him free from the darkness of his soul. The trilogy concludes with As Sure as the Dawn, which follows Atretes, the high chief of a Germanic tribe who fought as a gladiator and won his freedom. As Atretes sets out to return home with his infant son, only one thing stands in his way: Rizpah, a Christian widow who has cared for the baby since his birth. All three books in this latest Collection include a preface from Francine Rivers and discussion questions suitable for personal and group use. “Francine Rivers puts readers right into the history of the moment.” —Romantic Times “Francine Rivers without a doubt is one of the finest storytellers of our generation. . . . No one reading her books will ever be the same again.” —Debbie Macomber, New York Times bestselling author “As we ‘watch’ Hadassah and Atretes struggle through first-century trials, we learn how to handle similar situations in the twenty-first century. The ‘costumes’ may vary, but our Lord does not change.” —Angela Hunt “Francine redefined Christian fiction—honest, unflinching, powerful, life-changing—demonstrating why storytelling is the most effective way to communicate God's truth. Every Christian novelist writing today owes a debt of gratitude to Francine Rivers for lighting the way.” —Liz Curtis Higgs “Francine Rivers writes from her heart to touch the hearts of her readers. Her books are essential reading for all who love Christian fiction.” —Bodie Thoene

The Masterpiece

A New York Times, USA Today, and Publishers Weekly bestseller "This character-driven romance will enthrall [Rivers's] many fans." —Library Journal The New York Times bestselling author of Redeeming Love returns to her romance roots with this unexpected and redemptive love story, a probing tale that reminds us that mercy can shape even the most broken among us into an imperfect yet stunning masterpiece. A successful LA artist, Roman Velasco appears to have everything he could possibly want—money, women, fame. Only Grace Moore, his reluctant, newly hired personal assistant, knows how little he truly has. The demons of Roman's past seem to echo through the halls of his empty mansion and out across his breathtaking Topanga Canyon view. But Grace doesn't know how her boss secretly wrestles with those demons: by tagging buildings as the Bird, a notorious but unidentified graffiti artist—an alter ego that could destroy his career and land him in prison. Like Roman, Grace is wrestling with ghosts and secrets of her own. After a disastrous marriage threw her life completely off course, she vowed never to let love steal her dreams again. But as she gets to know the enigmatic man behind the reputation, it's as if the jagged pieces of both of their pasts slowly begin to fit together . . . until something so unexpected happens that it changes the course of their relationship—and both their lives—forever. "Rivers deftly threads Roman's and Grace's lives together as they tiptoe around their emotional scars, eventually shifting into a dance of tentative steps toward a love neither can resist. Fans of Christian romance will delight in this tale of salvation through love." —Kirkus Reviews "Richly detailed characters with traumatic pasts are woven together with biblical truths and redemptive themes. . . . This is an amazing, beautifully written tale to be savored and pondered and shared with others." —Romantic Times "Readers will marvel at Rivers's storytelling arc encompassing the reconciliation of gritty past misdeeds and the work in progress of a life of forgiveness." —Booklist "Fans of Francine Rivers will eagerly devour The Masterpiece and find exactly what they are looking for: a beautifully written story of faith, romance, and the power that true freedom can bring." —Bookreporter

Her Daughter's Dream

This second book in the epic family saga by Francine Rivers follows a daughter as she tries to repair the damage done by the generations before her.

100 Prison Meditations: Cries of Truth From Behind the Iron Curtain

Pastor Richard Wurmbrand was imprisoned for a total of 14 years by Communists in Romania. During three years in solitary confinement, he pondered the truths of Scripture, writing and committing to memory hundreds of sermons.

Sibling Action

Stefani Engelstein argues that the sibling paradigm shaped the modern subject, life sciences, human sciences, and collective identities such as race, religion, and gender. Integrating close readings with panoramic intellectual history, Sibling Action presents a compelling new understanding of systems of knowledge.

The Glittering Illusion

"Mr. Sheldon Vanauken has shown a singular consistency in pursuing an idea that was originally the subject of his graduate research at Oxford University to its presentation in this volume. Mr. Vanauken believes -- and there is a good deal of evidence to support him -- that English sympathies during the American Civil War were largely on the Southern side of the conflict. British intervention would have secured a Southern victory which might have suited British commercial interests and British conceptions of the balance of power and put an end to American hopes of annexing Canada. Support for the South would have conformed to the general British disposition to give credence to struggles for national self-determination. Why then, did Britain not intervene as at one moment she seemed on the point of doing? Mr. Sheldon Vanauken dismisses the view that British anti-slavery sentiment and hence popular support for the Northern cause was the root of the matter and plumps for what he calls the 'glittering illusion' namely the belief that Southern military skills, and in particular the generalship of Robert E. Lee, were thought to make a Southern defeat unthinkable, so that the South could win its independence without the foreign assistance that the American colonies had enjoyed in winning their independence from the British Empire in the war of the American Revolution. It is an interesting idea and one that challenges many accepted beliefs. Interesting also are Mr. Vanauken's subsequent speculations on what would have happened if the South had actually won and as he believes would have followed had freed its slaves of its own violation"--Preliminary page.

Gateway to Heaven

"Gateway to Heaven tells of a memorable journey to France, the Vallances' stormy sea voyage from London to the Greek Isles, where Mary falls into frightful danger; an idyllic vacation in Hawaii, their response to the antiwar movement, the drug culture, and sexual freedom in the confusion of the sixties" --

Drawing the Samurai Sword

To the Japanese, the sword is a spiritual weapon. It possesses a particular divinity, reflecting the soul of its maker, owner, and user. Around its mystical powers has grown the centuries-old ritual and practice of Samurai swordsmanship which is still avidly practiced today as is a fascinating and intricate martial art. Sweetbriar Cottage

They thought their love story was over. They thought their divorce was final. They were wrong. Following his divorce, Noah gave up his dream job and settled at a remote horse ranch in the Blue Ridge Mountains of northern Georgia, putting much-needed distance between himself and the former love of his life. But then Noah gets a letter from the IRS claiming he and Josephine are still married. When he confronts Josephine, they discover that she missed the final step in filing the paperwork and they are, in fact, still married. Josephine is no happier about the news than Noah. Maybe the failed marriage—and botched divorce—was her fault, but her heart was shattered right alongside his, more than he would ever believe. The sooner they put this marriage behind them, the better for both of their sakes. But when Josephine delivers the final paperwork to his ranch, the two become stranded in his cottage during the worst spring snowstorm in a decade. Being trapped with Josephine is a test of Noah's endurance. He wrestles with resentment and an unmistakable pull to his wife—still beautiful, still brave, and still more intriguing than any woman he's ever known. As they find themselves confronted with each other and their shared past, old wounds surface and tempers flare. But when they are forced out into the storm, they must rely on each other in a way they never have before. The Complete Works

Since the early 2000s, genealogy has become a lucrative business, an accelerating online industry, a massive data mining project, and fodder for reality television. But the fact remains that our contemporary fascination with family history cannot be understood independently of the powerful technological tools that aid and abet in the search for traces of blood, belonging, and difference. In The Genealogical Sublime, Julia Creet traces the histories of the largest, longest-running, most lucrative, and most rapidly growing genealogical databases to delineate a broader history of the industry. As each unique case study reveals, new database and DNA technologies enable an obsessive completeness -- the desire to gather all of the world's genealogical records in the interests of life beyond death. Archival research and firsthand interviews with Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints officials, key industry players (including Ancestry.com founders and Family Search executives), and professional and amateur family historians round out this timely and essential study.

The Genealogical Sublime

The New York Times bestselling author of Redeeming Love and A Voice in the Wind pens a captivating tale of suffering, seeking, and redemption set in Appalachia in the 1850s. In the misty peaks and valleys of Appalachia roams the sin eater—a myth as much as a man, burdened with absolving the sins of villagers passing from this life to the next. But when a young girl uncovers the dark secret behind the tradition, she vows to show her village the truth. All that matters for young Cadi Forbes is finding the one man who can set her free from the sin that plagues her, the sin that has stolen her mother's love from her and made Cadi wish she could flee life and its terrible injustice. But Cadi doesn't know that the sin eater is seeking as well. Before their journeys are over, Cadi and the sin eater must face themselves, each other, and the One who will demand everything from them in exchange for the answers they seek. "This unforgettable novel is rich in style, lore, and action, revealing a profound truth in a way only Francine Rivers can do. Transcending age, gender, and reading genres, this gripping story is a must-read for men, women, and young people alike." —Romantic Times "Rivers delivers both a powerful message about Christian beliefs and the need for forgiveness of sins and an evocative portrayal of life in the 1850s. Highly recommended." —Library Journal Also available in The Francine Rivers Historical Collection (e-book only).

The Star of Redemption is widely recognized as a key document of modern existential thought and a significant contribution to Jewish theology in the twentieth century. An affirmation of what Rosenzweig called "the new thinking," the work ensconces common sense in the place of abstract, conceptual philosophizing and posits the validity of the concrete, individual human being over that of "humanity" in general. Fusing philosophy and theology, it assigns both Judaism and Christianity distinct but equally important roles in the spiritual structure of the world, and finds in both biblical religions approaches toward a comprehension of reality.

The Star of Redemption

A relevant and timely novel by the New York Times bestselling author of Redeeming Love and The Masterpiece. He seemed like the perfect pastor to lead Centerville Christian Church. She was the perfect pastor's wife. When Paul Hudson accepted the call to pastor the struggling church, he had no idea what to expect. But it didn't take long for Paul to turn Centerville Christian Church around. Attendance was up-way up. Everything was going so well. If only his wife could see it that way. Still, he tried not to let her quiet presence disturb him. She knew something wasn't right, and it hadn't been for a long time. . . . Eunice closed the bedroom door quietly and knelt beside her bed. "I'm drowning, God. I've never felt so alone. Who can I turn to but you, Lord? Where else does a pastor's wife go for help when her marriage is failing and her life is out of control? Who can I trust with my anguish, Lord? Who but you?" Grasping her pillow, she pressed it tightly to her mouth so that her sobs would not be heard. "This book is a powerful and almost-prophetic statement of the church in America. . . . And the Shofar Blew is a must-read." —Anne Graham Lotz, bestselling author and speaker "[Rivers] as usual turns in a strong narrative, posing issues that ring loud and clear." —Booklist "Meticulously plotted, Francine Rivers's new masterpiece, And the Shofar Blew, brims with unforgettable characters." —Romantic Times Also available in The Francine Rivers Contemporary Collection (e-book only).

Horror has taken hold upon me because of the wicked that forsake thy law – Psalm 119:53 Updated, Modern English. Illustrated. The life of Mr. Badman forms a third part to The Pilgrim's Progress, but it is not a delightful pilgrimage to heaven. On the contrary, it is a wretched downward journey to the infernal realms. The author's goal is to warn poor, thoughtless sinners, not with smooth words they can ignore, but with words that thunder against their consciences regarding the danger of their souls and the increasing wretchedness into which they are madly hurrying. The one who is in imminent but unseen danger will bless the warning voice if it reaches his ears, however rough and startling it may sound. The life of Badman was written in an age when abandonment of moral principles, vice, gluttony, intemperance, habitual lewdness, and the excessive unlawful indulgence of lust marched like a ravaging army through our land, headed by the king, along with officers from his polluted peers. Is this book not also written for today, then?

The Life and Death of Mr. Badman

From the New York Times bestselling author of Redeeming Love and The Masterpiece—and “one of [Christian fiction's] most honored and talented writers” (Library Journal)—comes a heart-wrenching but uplifting story about a highly controversial topic. Dynah Carey knew where her life was headed. Engaged to a wonderful man, the daughter of doting parents, a faithful child of God—she has it all. Then the unthinkable happens: Dynah's perfect life is irrevocably changed by a rape that results in an unwanted pregnancy. Her family is torn apart and her seemingly rock-solid faith is pushed to the limits as she faces the most momentous choice of her life: to embrace or to end the life within her. This is ultimately a tale of three women, as Dynah's plight forces both her mother and her grandmother to confront the choices they made. Written with balance and compassion, The Atonement Child brings a new perspective to a widely debated topic.

The Atonement Child

It offers a resource for students and others seeking to understand and evaluate how American law governs police interactions with the public. The book provides primary materials, including cases, statutes, and departmental policies, and commentary and questions designed to help readers explore policing practices; the law that governs them; and the law's consequences for the costs, benefits, fairness, and accountability of policing. Among other issues, the notes and questions encourage readers to consider the form and content of the law; how it might change; who is making it; and how the law affects policing. Part I introduces local policing--its history, its goals, and its problems; Part II considers the law that regulates criminal investigations; Part III addresses the law that governs street policing; and Part IV looks at policing's legal remedies and reforms. New to the Second Edition: New sections and materials on no-knock warrants, facial recognition technology, state regulation of pedestrian stops, alternatives to police-initiated traffic stops, state laws granting arrest authority, retaliatory arrest claims, state qualified immunity reform, private civil settlements for police reform, and community strategies to limit the scope of policing. Additional examples of controversial police encounters to illustrate legal issues and concepts. Benefits for instructors and students: Chapters and notes designed to allow flexibility--allow professors to assign materials selectively according to the needs of the course. As a result, the casebook can serve as materials for a range of lecture and discussion-based courses on the law regulating police conduct; on legal remedies and reforms for problems in policing; or on more specific topics, such as the use of force or constitutional rules governing police conduct. Descriptions of controversial policing encounters and links to and discussion of videos of such incidents--help students practice applying the law, consider its policy implications, and gain awareness of contemporary controversies on policing. Diverse primary materials, including federal and state cases and statutes and police department policies--provide a broad exposure to the types of law that govern public policing. Photos, links to videos, protest art, and charts--pique student interest, enable richer discussions, and provide additional context for legal materials in the book. Integration of scholarly work on policing, on the law, and on the impact of police practices--enables students to make more sophisticated assessments of the law. Notes and questions--designed to (a) highlight alternative strategies lawyers might use to change the law, and (b) raise comparative institutional questions about who is best suited to regulate the police. Discussion of legal topics relevant to contemporary discussions of policing--studied nowhere else in the law school curriculum.

Criminal Procedures: Cases, Statutes, and Executive Materials is known for its focus on materials from multiple institutions, including primary materials from U.S. Supreme Court cases, state high court cases, state and federal statutes, rules of procedure, and police and prosecutorial policies, along with materials from social science studies. Taken together, the principal materials highlight procedural variety, focus on real-world topics, provide the political context, offer a comparative analysis of different legal approaches, and consider the impact of procedures. The 2022 Supplement covers the most recent decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court as well as newsworthy developments such as policing and bail reform, emerging legal responses to new surveillance technologies, and the declination policies of newly-elected prosecutors. New to the 2022 Edition: Two new authors joined the editorial team in 2019: Jenia Iontcheva Turner of SMU Dedman School of Law and Kay L. Levine of Emory University School of Law. With her doctoral training in Socio-Legal Studies and her balanced experience as a prosecutor and a defense attorney in state court, Professor Levine sharpens the focus of the book on the real-world operation of courtroom actors in high-volume state systems. With her background in international criminal tribunals and comparative criminal procedure, Professor Turner strengthens the comparisons between court systems in the U.S. and those around the world. The 2022 Supplement incorporates all of the Criminal Procedure rulings of the U.S. Supreme Court from its October 2019, October 2020, and October 2021 terms, whether through reprinting opinions as principal materials or through summary coverage in new notes and practice problems. The Supplement includes opinions from high state courts that add texture to the doctrines described in the main volume. The Supplement also spotlights new legislative and enforcement trends, including proposals for limiting police use of force, "defunding" or reforming police departments, emerging legal responses to new surveillance technologies, bail reform, and the declination policies that prosecutors publish and apply.

Cases and Materials on Business Entities

Business Associations: A Systems Approach is the first Business Associations casebook organized by function (decision-making, finance, investor litigation, investment transfer, etc.) instead of by entity type (partnerships, corporations, LLCs, etc.). Functional organization avoids repetition and makes full coverage of corporations, partnerships, LLCs, and limited partnerships possible in a four-, or even three-, credit course. The systems approach is the basis for several successful casebooks in other fields, most notably LoPucki, Warren and Lawless's Secured Transactions: A Systems Approach. The approach focuses on the actions of the lawyers, businesspeople, and government administrators who apply law rather than merely on abstract law. Business Associations: A Systems Approach provides hundreds of realistic, fact-rich problems in legal practice settings. Students apply their new knowledge of law and how the systems work to advise hypothetical clients. The cases are recent, heavily edited, and rarely longer than five pages. Professors and students will benefit from: Full coverage of agency, corporations, partnerships, LLCs, limited partnerships and the role of legal entities in society Tables, figures, photos, and one cartoon Fundamental documents for Facebook and a hypothetical LLC (BKG Catalina) and operating agreement, which are also integrated into the text and problems Cleanly edited, easy-to-read cases Recent cases that illustrate modern business practices and reflect current law Organization by function, which reduces the repetition required in organization by entity type Modular organization, allowing the chapters to be taught in any order An approach that any kind of entity could be made to work like any other. Other books teach what kinds of entities to use in what situations. Fact-rich, realistic problems in practice settings An introductory assignment that provides an overview of the course Clear and direct examples and explanations, free of jargon and idioms that cause difficulty for students from other cultures. Great for LL.M.s, MJSs and foreign J.D.s! A detailed glossary

The updated casebook, Manning and Stephenson's Legislation and Regulation, 2d, is designed for a first-year class on Legislation & Regulation, and provides a proven, ready-to-use set of materials for those interested in introducing such a class to their 1L curriculum. The book focuses on the tools and methods of interpreting legal texts, using Supreme Court and other appellate decisions as the primary texts, yet the note material gently introduces students to applicable insights from political science, history, economics, and philosophy. The book aims to familiarize students with tools and techniques that lawyers and judges use when crafting legal arguments in statutory or regulatory contexts, and to give students a sense of the larger questions of institutional design implicated by these interpretive questions.

Business Organizations Law and Policy

Important features of Business Associations, Fourth Edition, include: * Complete & developed materials on agency & partnership reflecting the authors' view that a good background in agency & partnership principles is important for its own sake, & for the study of corporate law * Problems helpful in illustrating material * Attention to the lawyer as planner, as opposed to litigator or critic.

Peuple du ciel

Deux enfants vivent une expérience qui bouleverse leur vie : Petite Croix, jeune aveugle en quête de la couleur bleue, découvre la beauté du monde au cours d'un étonnant voyage intérieur, tandis que Gaspar, élevé dans une ville, se voit révéler la liberté du nomadisme... Des histoires insolites où les enfants sont des magiciens qui nous entraînent de l'autre côté du miroir. Récits initiatiques, passages d'un monde à un autre, ces nouvelles poétiques semblent nées du rêve d'un écrivain.

Peuple du ciel

Nouvelle - fille - cécité - désert - sécheresse.

Le processus de création dans l'oeuvre de J.M.G. Le Clézio

Le processus de création dans l'œuvre de J.M.G. Le Clézio propose une étude des étapes du travail créateur dans les romans, essais et nouvelles de Le Clézio, prix Nobel de littérature 2008. Le processus de création dans l'œuvre de J.M.G. Le Clézio is a study of the phases of the process of literary creation in the novels, essays and short stories of Le Clézio – 2008 Nobel laureate for literature.

Le Clézio, passeur des arts et des cultures

L'attribution du Prix Nobel à JMG Le Clézio en 2008 a consacré, autant que l'écrivain français, le meilleur représentant de la " littérature-monde ". L'ouvrage collectif : Le Clézio, passeur des arts et des cultures ancre opportunément dans l'œuvre cette qualité d'écrivain sans frontières. Le Clézio dote la littérature d'une fonction heuristique : explorer les voies de passage vers les cultures mauricienne, nigériane, amérindienne marocaine ou océanienne, mettre en lumière la fécondité des confluences entre les arts. Les auteurs interrogent une démarche anthropologique consciente des écueils de l'exotisme ou de l'ethnocentrisme et attentive à ce socle commun à l'humanité que représente le geste artistique. Qu'il commente la poésie de Michaux, les films d'Antonioni ou de Mizogushi, les tableaux de Georges de la Tour, de Modigliani, de Diego Rivera et de Frida Kahlo, J.M.G. Le Clézio privilégie la démarche critique sensible et subjective préconisée par Baudelaire. L'art investit la création littéraire et plusieurs analyses soulignent la richesse des sources d'inspiration leclézienne ; des courants picturaux des années 1960-1970 aux masques africains et aux arts populaires ; du chant à la danse. L'écriture appelle la transposition : trois récits, Mondo, Le Procès-verbal. Pawana, suscitent ainsi des recreations par Tony Gatlif, Edmond Baudoin et Georges Lavaudant qui relèvent les défis de l'adaptation au cinéma, en roman graphique et à la scène. Dans une communauté de valeurs, ces artistes relaient l'attention empathique d'un écrivain soucieux de résister à toutes les tentatives d'uniformisation et qui affirme avec force la nécessité de donner voix aux oubliés, de se mettre à l'écoute des civilisations " invisibles "

Le chant d'amour à la poésie par un grand écrivain contemporain Je suis entré dans la poésie Tang presque à l'improviste, mais non par hasard, en lisant un poème de Li Bai, qui met face à face un homme et une montagne. Le poète décrit un lieu d'immobilité et de majesté devant lequel l'être humain, dans sa faiblesse et son impermanence, ne peut que s'asseoir et regarder. Li Bai m'apportait autre chose, à quoi je n'étais pas préparé par mon éducation et par mon langage : une plénitude, une paix intérieure. Cette paix n'était pas difficile à atteindre. Il suffisait de s'asseoir et de regarder. La poésie Tang est sans doute le moyen de garder ce contact avec le monde réel, elle nous invite au voyage hors de nous-mêmes, nous fait partager les règnes, les durées, les rêves. J.M.G. Le Clézio

Le flot de la poésie continuera de couler

Parce que le conte peut faire reculer la mort, Bitna, étudiante coréenne sans un sou, invente des histoires pour Salomé, immobilisée par une maladie incurable. La première lutte contre la pauvreté, la seconde contre la douleur. Ensemble, elles se sauvent dans des récits quotidiens ou fabuleux, et bientôt la frontière entre réalité et imaginaire disparaît. Un roman qui souffle ses légendes urbaines sur la rivière Han, les boulevards saturés et les ruelles louches. Sous le ciel de Séoul se lève « le vent de l'envie des fleurs »...

Bitna, sous le ciel de Séoul

Dans une petite ville de Californie, un jeune militant s'apprête à vivre pour la première fois l'épreuve de la violence : comment va-t-il résister à la peur et à la souffrance ? En bavardant avec un rémouleur ambulant, une femme dans la force de l'âge, mariée à un fermier sans imagination, ressent un soudain désir de vivre, de voir du pays, de s'évader ; un instant, un même sentiment érotique de la terre la relie au voyageur ; mais l'évasion dont elle a rêvé se transformera en une sortie banale à Salinas, la ville voisine... Treize nouvelles, dont le célèbre Poney rouge. Mais un seul livre, dont l'unité est l'amour de Steinbeck pour la grande vallée californienne de Salinas. La vallée où se passent les choses les plus ordinaires du monde - les plus grandes -, le pays où vivent les gens les plus simples, les plus mystérieux des hommes.

Confession d'une jeune fille

Pouce et Poussy se ressemblent tant que tout le monde les croit jumelles. Même visage espiègle. Même rire enfantin. Un jour, elles quittent l'usine et décident de partir. Avec leurs maigres économies, elles s'achètent un billet pour le Sud, pour mener enfin la grande vie. Celle dont elles ont toujours rêvé...

La grande vallée

Presents a collection of short stories, including "Ariadne," "The Great Life," and "David."

La Grande Vie

Cet ouvrage rassemble diverses études d'analyse narrative présentées lors du 2e colloque international du RRENAB à Louvain-la-Neuve (avril 2004). La critique narrative y est mise en œuvre par de nombreux spécialistes sur différents corpus des deux Testaments et sur quelques livres apocryphes, tandis que d'autres essais abordent des questions méthodologiques (lien à l'anthropologie et à l'éthique, focalisation, rapport à l'histoire). Plusieurs études autour de mêmes thèmes permettent une approche croisée des questions. On y parle ainsi de l'intrigue, des personnages et de leur caractérisation (Jacob, Jésus chez Marc, œuvre de Luc), de textes parallèles dans l'A.T., de l'intertextualité particulière entre les deux Testaments, des tensions présentes dans l'évangile de Matthieu, de la finale des quatre évangiles, de la fonction de passages poétiques ou de discours dans des sections narratives, de la possibilité de recourir à la narratologie pour étudier certains passages de lettres de Paul. Un beau tour d'horizon de la recherche actuelle en narratologie biblique dans le monde francophone.

Livres hebdo

A collection of eight short stories in which Nobel Prize-winning author J. M. G. Le Clézio examines a longing for life outside of the confines of modern existence.
