La Cuisine

Ce volume collectif cherche à éclaircir les relations entre littérature et nourriture. Jusqu'à présent, la recherche littéraire a été très timide à considérer les modalités d'écriture du fait alimentaire. Le présent volume s'inscrit donc dans la réhabilitation encore hésitante d'un sujet que la critique littéraire n'aborde guère en recourant, comme le propose cet ouvrage, à l'apport transdisciplinaire des sciences humaines. Les treize articles analysent l'écriture gastronomique à travers différents types de discours et sur une période qui s'étend du Moyen Age au XXème siècle. Le sous-titre renvoie à Roland Barthes, pour lequel la nourriture elle-même constitue un code, dépendant d'une énonciation et de règles de mise en signes. Le repas est un phénomène dans lequel se croisent tous les signes alimentaires d'une manière significative. Les contributeurs se proposent d'étudier comment les stratégies de description de siècle en siècle manifestent continuités et ruptures.

Cet ouvrage semblerait être pour le sens du goûter et les aliments de haute cuisine ce que demeure le livre d'Alain Corbin : ##Le miasme et la jonquille## (1982) pour l'odorat et les senteurs. Propos de table de l'auteur et textes anciens ou nouveaux, dont Delteil, rejoignent "le goût des mots" qui titre la première partie alors que la seconde : "le grain des choses" offre presque une centaine de recettes dont plusieurs datent de 1420 ou de 1505.
