'Nursing at the Horton' - 1956 to 1962; when hospitals were run by nurses. Matron was all powerful, demanding considerable respect from all. We were taught patients came first, second and last, everything else had to fit in between. The relationship between them, and the local people was; 'They are our patients, and we were their nurses'. During this time student nurses were responsible for cleanliness in the hospital. We knew that if a patient developed a hospital born infection - heads would roll! Our heads remained safe. Antibiotics had just become available, in limited supply. The nurses worked long hard hours - 60 to 72 hours a week; but played hard too. Some parts are very sad, others happy or funny. If you have ever been a patient or nurse in a hospital, especially the Horton, you will recognise the love that was generated. The book is a sequel to 'Aynhoe Village Life. The Way it Was', but can be read as a stand alone. Look for 'Nursing and Living in America. The Way it Was'.

Andre F. Depuis, the author, seems to be a social outcast, trying to fill a humdrum, low-level life. Gradually, with the help of a decent memory, including various artistic references, he pieces together something extraordinary. A new and different way of living. By good choice and chance associations, the writer develops a line of reasoning, and anticipation of, as it could be called, a heterogeneous disposition. A simple but complex, dark but comic, twist from the mundane to the miraculous. All readers are advised to lose themselves in this book. The book also stands re-reading well.

Christmas Party Games

And That's the Way it Was is a legacy to her family (daughter, son, and three grandsons and many nieces and nephews) as told by Florence Baltimore McDaniels. The intent is to tell how a family that had little material things and wealth functioned and worked together to make a happy home. The family was poor but the children didn't realize that they were because they had the most important necessity-love. There were a lot of family-oriented activities, fun and games, and wholesome activities that stimulated a desire to learn and excel in everything that was done. Lessons learned are instilled in behaviors such as trustworthiness, obedience versus disobedience, doing one's part, sharing the responsibilities, caring for each other, and respecting one's parents and siblings. It is very important that every individual knows how to spend one's spare time. One should have a hobby or develop a skill to hone in on when alone or when you need time to one's self and to reflect on one's inner strength. Continue to take on new skills and acquire new knowledge that will enhance and stimulate the mind. Try to keep up with current events and be aware of how changes in government and community will affect you. When making decisions always try to make choices with which you can live. It's all right to take chances, but remember that you must live with the consequences. And remember that no one is perfect. We all make mistakes; but once we make a mistake, try not to repeat that same mistake again. An intelligent person learns from his/her mistakes. That is how we grow and gain self confidence.

The Millennium Party Book

The undisputed "Queen of Crime," Dame Agatha Christie (1890-1976) is the bestselling novelist of all time. As the creator of immortal detectives Hercule Poirot and Jane Marple, she continues to enthrall readers around the world and is drawing increasing attention from scholars, historians, and critics. But Christie wrote far beyond Poirot and Marple. A varied life including war work, archaeology, and two very different marriages provided the backdrop to a diverse body of work. This encyclopedic companion summarizes and explores Christie's entire literary output, including the detective fiction, plays, radio dramas, adaptations, and her little-studied non-crime writing. It details all published works and key themes and characters, as well as the people and places that inspired them, and identifies a trove of uncollected interviews, articles, and unpublished material, including details that have never appeared in print. For the casual reader looking for background information on their favorite mystery to the dedicated scholar tracking down elusive new angles, this companion will provide the most comprehensive and up-to-date information.

Make Christmas Real

This is a nostalgic story about Pat Stacey and friends who joined The League of Ovaltineys in 1941. In 1945 they formed their own club, initially growing and selling garden produce to raise funds. From humble beginnings of camping, cooking and meetings in the back garden they progressed to hiking, camping, ice skating, swimming, youth hosteling and more. They put concerts on and sold handcrafted items made by themselves making donations to Dr Barnardo's Homes. The accent was on hard work and fun. Pat Stacey compiled log books with hand written essays by the girls so the story is written by them. Michael Parkinson has completed the picture by researching and writing histories of Ovaltine, Barnardo's and the Youth Hostel Association – all important to Pat and the girls.

Social Q's

A young, inexperienced governess is charged with the care of Miles and Flora, two small children given into her charge by their uncle at his grand country house. The Turn of the Screw is probably the most famous, certainly the most eerily equivocal, of all ghostly tales. Is it a subtle, self-conscious exploration of the haunted house of Victorian culture, filled with echoes of sexual and social unease? Or is it simply the most hopelessly evil story that we have ever read? Owen Wingrave is a story of the son of a long line of military heroes, who refuses to follow tradition, but proves his bravery in haunted room.

After Dinner Amusements: Which Would You Choose?

Möge der Engel der Weihnacht bei dir sein

Alle Jahre wieder wird sie wach, die Sehnsucht unserer Kindertage. Tannenzweige, Lebkuchenduft und Kerzenlicht rühren das Herz an und bringen die Seele zum Schwingen. Es ist ein Schimmer des Paradieses, der in jenen Tagen aufleuchtet und uns zum Kind in der Krippe führt. Die Gedanken, Gedichte und Geschichten von Klaus Roos laden ein, sich auf diesen Weg einzulassen und in Berührung zu kommen mit dem weihnachtlichen Geheimnis der Menschwerdung, das die Welt Jahr für Jahr zum Leuchten bringt.

Ich wünsche dir den Engel der Weihnacht

Zunächst lebt Liz wie die anderen Leute in ihrem Alter ein ganz normales Teenagerleben. Sie hat einen wundervollen Freund, Freunde und Familie. Was will man mehr? Nun ja, vermutlich keine Flügel. Aber genau das ist es, was passiert. Aber nicht nur ihre neuen federigen Gefährten stellen ihr Leben auf den Kopf, sondern auch die Tatsache, dass sie plötzlich ihren Bruder wieder sieht. An und für sich nichts Dramatisches, wäre dieser nicht bereits seit zwei Jahren tot. Und als wäre das nicht schon genug, geschehen plötzlich auch noch rätselhafte Morde. Kaum tauchen die ersten Phantombilder des herumwütenden Serienkillers auf, verschwindet auch Liz. Freund sang- und klanglos. Liz versteht die Welt nicht mehr. Aber Gott sei Dank, gibt es da diesen geheimnisvollen neuen Schüler, der mehr zu wissen scheint. Eine Reise zum Ursprung allen Lebens und durch Parallelwelten erwarten Liz. Und nicht zuletzt auch noch eine Reise zu sich selbst, denn sie ist nicht die, die sie zu sein glaubt.

Es leuchtet die Welt der Weihnacht entgegen

Die in jiddischer Sprache geschriebenen Memoiren, die Glikl bas Judah Leib 1689, nach dem Tod ihres ersten Ehemannes begann und bis 1719 fortführte, sind die erste erhaltene und bekannte Autobiographie einer Frau in Deutschland und wurden eine herausragende Quelle der Forschung für die deutsch-jüdische Geschichte und Kultur. 1910, also noch vor dem Ersten Weltkrieg, wurden Glikls Memoiren durch Bertha Pappenheim, Gründerin des Jüdischen Frauenbundes in Deutschland, aus dem Westjiddischen übersetzt und veröffentlicht. Bertha Pappenheim war eine entfernte Verwandte von Glikl bas Judah Leib, sie ließ sich 1925 von Leopold Pilichowski sogar im Kostüm der Glikl malen. Als außergewöhnlich umfangreiches Beispiel eines nicht in künstlerisch-literarischer Absicht geschriebenen jiddischen Texts diene es auch als Basis sprachwissenschaftlicher Studien. Das Jüdische Museum Berlin widmet der hamburgischen Kauffrau ein Kapitel in der Dauerausstellung und zeigt anhand ihres Lebens die Schwierigkeiten vor der Jüdischen Emanzipation, der Integration der Juden in die Nation.

Weihnachten – Zeit der Geschenke. Doch wer hat eigentlich mit dem Schenken angefangen? Gott selbst: Er ließ Jesus Christus zur Welt kommen, sein Geschenk für alle Menschen.
