Sat sri akaal. This is a greeting of world's fifth largest religion, called Sikhism.

Sikhi, or Sikhism, was founded in 1400s by Guru Nanak in the Punjab region of India.

The word "sikh" means a disciple, or a student, and the word "guru" means a teacher.

Sikhism is a monotheistic religion.

It is estimated that about half a million Sikhs live in the United States.

American Sikhs have served in United States military as far back as early 20th century.

Sikhism has five articles of Faith.

Third one is Kachera, which is your shorts for purity and self-control.

Two significant colors in Sikh religion, when it comes to turban, is blue and orange.

Many of its come as a fashion where people match their shirt colors with their turban colors.

To a Sikh, a turban - it's his crown.

Within months there were approximately 300 racial bias attacks against Sikhs recorded in the United States.

Kids are bullied in school and harassed because of their faith or the way they look.

So, in 2016, we formed the Sikh Officers Association, which has been since recognized
