How To Fall Back In Love With Your Business

The Entrepreneur's Journey: A few years ago you started your business, either on your own or with a business partner(s). There's a high chance that you come from a technical background and are good at what you do. You started your own business with great plans and, for a number of years, it has grown well, based on your sheer determination, hard work and passion. In time you have managed to get it over the £1m turnover 'mountain' and you've taken on employees. So what's next? And this is where you've got stuck. The growth of your business has now slowed down, has plateaued or dropped back. Since you started the business has changed considerably, and you've changed with it. When you started out you had a dream about how your life was going to pan out, all the things you were going to do. But the greatest challenge to you now is TIME. Where does it go to? You start every week with great gusto, determined you're going to smash that to-do list; Before you know it, BAM! It's Friday again. As the months roll by you are more worn down and frustrated. Yes, there are some highs but it's not what you really want, and you know you can achieve so much more. You start to look overly forward to weekends and holidays and, before long, you've become an employee. You have lost sight of the reason you started the business, and in the words of Bob Geldof, you "Don't like Mondays". Life is starting to feel a bit like Groundhog Day: every week is filled with unwanted noise and, before you know it, it's the weekend again. You have started to become bored, easily distracted, disinterested and have lost your mojo. If you haven't already, or you have, but not quite realised that you have, you will start to fall out of love with your business. You have started to fall out of love with your business. How do you know? You've lost the passion and drive you once felt. You're bored and easily distracted. You blame the industry, the economy, your competitors or anyone else. You're frustrated and stressed. But there's something else lurking deep inside... The Fear of Failure. Without knowing it you've also developed a fear of failure. You're worried that you have built your business this far and, if you try to change it, it could all come tumbling down and you will lose everything. So, the best thing to do is to bury your head in the sand and 'pretend/hope/kid yourself' something magical will happen, and it will change. How can I fall back in love with my business? You are not alone. All your feelings, challenges and fears are a normal part of the Entrepreneur's Journey and shared across most £1m-plus growing businesses. Your strength now is to recognise the traits and signs mentioned above and do something about it. By reading and implementing the principles that I'm going to share with you in this book, your business will be easier and more enjoyable to manage. Through focus, better utilisation of your team, and by doing the things you enjoy, you'll achieve the aspirational results you desire and fall back in love with your business. Real results drive wealth and, in turn, you will start to live the dream that your hard work deserves. It's time to stop procrastinating. "Only sh#t happens, everything else you have to make happen." The Seven Steps to SECCCESS® Strategy – Enjoy the journey, it's more important than the destination. Empowerment – You'll only achieve exceptional results through effective teamwork. Control Panel – Know what you want, measure, assess and drive performance. Cash – Your primary goal must focus on generating real cash. Efficiency – Get more for less through constant review and

UNSCRIPTED

What if Life Wasn't About 50 Years of Wage-Slavery, Paying Bills and then Dying? Tired of sleepwalking through a mediocre life bribed by mindless video-gaming, redemptive weekends, and a scant paycheck from a soul-suffocating job? Welcome to the SCRIPTED club— where membership is neither perceived or consented. The fact is, ever since you've been old enough to sit obediently in a classroom, you have been culturally engineered for servitude, unwittingly enslaved into a Machiavellian system where illusionary rules go unchallenged, sanctified traditions go unquestioned, and lifelong dreams go unfulfilled. As a result, your life is hijacked and marginalised into debt, despair, and dependence. Life's death sentence becomes the daily curse of the trivial and mundane. Fun fades. Dreams die. Don't let life's consolation prize become a car and a weekend. Recapture what is yours and make a revolutionary repossession of life-and-liberty through the pursuit of entrepreneurship. A paradigm shift isn't needed—the damn paradigm needs to be thrown-out altogether. The truth is, if you blindly follow conventional wisdom pushed by conventional people living conventional lives, can you expect to be anything but conventional? Rewrite life's script: ditch the job, give Wall Street the bird, and escape the insanity of trading your life away for a paycheck and an elderly promise called retirement. UNSCRIPT today and start leading life— instead of life leading you.

What If? and Why Not?

Starting your own business is hard. But the biggest obstacles often have less to do with time and money, and more to do with fear and doubt. In What If? and Why Not? serial entrepreneur and small business advocate Jen Groover—creator of the Butler Bag and creator and host of Launcher's Café, an online community for entrepreneurs—shows you how to transform your fears into action by rethinking the negative questions that can lead to failure before you even get started. Being an entrepreneur, Groover says, isn't just about selling a product. It's about personal growth—about taking your vision and bringing it to fruition, and about always pushing yourself to take that vision further. What gets in your way isn't the money you don't have, or what you don't know about the industry you want to get into—it's believing you can't do it, that you don't have the power or the resources you need to make your dream into a reality. Groover walks you step by step through ten negative "What If?" questions—What if I don't know what I'm doing? What if I don't have the money? What if I fail?—and how to turn them around by asking yourself: What if I can learn? What if I don't need much money? What if I succeed?

She also asks "What Not?": Why not find a mentor or take a class? Why not ask for investors? Why not try? With dozens of personal stories from successful entrepreneurs in areas as diverse as dog walking and handbag-invention, plus practical advice for every step of your journey, What If? and Why Not? is the most complete guide available to help you start the business of your dreams.

The One Hour Business Plan for Starting a Small Business

"If you trust in yourself. . .and believe in your dreams. . .and follow your star. . . you'll still get beaten by people who spent their time working hard and learning things and weren't so lazy" Terry Pratchett, The Wee Free Men

The One Hour Business Plan for Starting a Small Business: The Solopreneur's Guide on How to Write a Business Plan & Start a Business. Escape the 9 to 5. Beginner to Advanced Small Business Planner (Business Planning Series)

If you are going to go into business for yourself, then you should be applauded. Being an entrepreneur is a very noble profession. You are helping the economy with your business, you might be employing people and you are in with a fighting chance of turning your own dreams into reality. People say that if you find your passion then you will never work a day in your life. Unfortunately, having a passion is not going to cut it when you want your business to be successful. You can be as passionate as you want, but if you don't do the research and planning, then your business may be doomed before it even begins. Think of it this way. If you were to go on a road trip across the U.S., you would have to have a general idea of where you want to end up (New York City) and where you want to start (Los Angeles), and you would need to know the various roads in the middle, or at least have a clear, accurate map. If you were to just hit the road and go, well you might get to your destination, but it would take much longer, you may get lost and you might not enjoy the journey as much. Since you didn't plan where you would get gas, you may run out and end up stranded in the middle of nowhere. That is not going to make a great trip for you. If you wanted to make the journey cheaper, smoother, faster and more comfortable, first, you would get a map and you would plan the journey down to the last detail. You would plan where to stay, where you to get gas and the best places to visit. It may be excessive, but now that you have planned everything you are going to have a quicker journey and there are going to be less hiccups. As long as you have a good, detailed plan and you follow through, adapting to any changes along the way, you will arrive at your destination. This is essentially how this business plan is going to work for you. It is your road map to entrepreneurial success. It will detail what your business is, how it will compete, where the money is coming from and why customers will choose your business rather than your competitors'. Without a business plan, even if you have a revolutionary product, the chances of success are greatly reduced. This business plan is your best friend when you are starting out with your company.

WHY THIS BUSINESS PLAN There are many reasons to have a business plan in place when you are looking to start or grow your business.

VALIDATE YOUR IDEA First, it will test just how feasible the business is. If the business is not feasible, the business plan will show that, and you will be able to adjust your strategy or move on to a new idea that will be more successful.

FUNDING If you want any sort of funding, from venture capitalists to your local bank loan, you are going to need a business plan. A business plan shows you have done your due diligence and is going to attract investors.

GOALS AND STRATEGY A business plan is not just about starting a business, as the next section will show. A business plan will help you find ways to expand your successful business, to understand the roles of employees and to determine the future goals of the company.

It's about creating value.

There's a simple tool to help visualize the value you create: the value stick.

What is willingness-to-sell?

Remind me: Where does profit come in again?

How do I raise willingness-to-pay?

And how do I lower willingness-to-sell?
