Poetry's Heart to Heal the Soul

Poetry's heart to heal the soul is based on some very touching inspirational things I have gone through in my life. With god as a guide and a light, I've been through many things and everything I've gone through I put it into love I call poetry, it's about good times and bad but always a meaning to explain life at that particular moment in time. It is a passion I have for life and the miracle it stands to be that I put into words. I see life kind of like music and a dream, and the power to create our own fate. A lot of it is gratitude for where I stand and my love to serve in this world, my wishes to help. Some of this literature is on religion some on limitless love, emotions I call a dimension on so many levels and outlooks I guess that's why it's poetry. When I write it's like my mind is filled with words and an understanding that I put to words in hope to interest or love in someway. I hope it is like a piece to a puzzle in some way or justice or helps someone to see life differently in a good way.

Ode to My Broken Heart

If you are at all familiar with Latonya's work, believe me when I say that this will definitely be a treat. Every piece that she has written in the past comes straight from the heart and this book of poetry is no different. This book of poems, deals with love, pain and healing in a way that readers can relate to and feel. This journey from love to heartbreak is inspiring in helping those who are dealing with such issues to heal. It speaks to the soul of the reader and literally takes you on a journey with the writer that is indeed incredible. Latonya has the unnerving ability to take what she is feeling and put it in words that inspire and invoke feelings within her readers that may have once been buried. As always, read, laugh, cry and above all else feel!

100 Poems to Heal a Broken Heart

The poems that became this book were written to ease the mind of my wife, Cindy. She had just been operated on for pancreatic cancer. A close friend of ours had just died from the same disease, and it was not pretty. At this time we had been married for thirty-six years. Cindy still had a lot of residual pain from the surgery, and was very afraid to die. I wrote her a love poem, and that made her feel better. Soon, I was writing more. I wrote poems that were loving, silly, or funny, anything to make her happier. Almost exactly a year later, I was in a motorcycle accident. It left me with a broken back, and eight ribs broken. I was in a cast which left me lying on my back for over four months. I became pretty good at writing on a notebook computer, with it resting on my cast, and up against my legs. Now we both had pain, and the poems brought us even closer. Other than the time that my family doctor told me that I had cancer (which turned out to not be true), things went along fine for about eight months. Cindys doctor had his assistant call her to say that her most recent test results were back from the lab. Without any preamble or emotion, she told Cindy that her cancer was back, and there was nothing that could be done! Cindy looked as if she had been shot. Now I really had to write some words that would help her on her last journey. I wrote to tell her how much I loved her, and how much she would be missed. The disease was consuming her body by this time, and she was becoming very weak. She continued on this downhill slide for approximately three months, until she finally required in-home hospice care. Her condition deteriorated considerably, but she still loved it when I read her my latest poetry. She started sleeping more and more, as she was having her pain managed with morphine. Our thirty-eighth wedding anniversary was August 20, and she managed to hang on until then. The next day, she slipped into a coma, and died four days later. I was beyond devastated. Cindy had asked me to get married again, even enlisting the help of her many girlfriends to find me a suitable mate. Before her death, that was a funny story. Immediately afterward, it was unthinkable! My whole world fell apart with her death. Cindy used to be the brightest spot in my life, my beacon, without her I was lost. I asked around, trying to find a grief counseling group, and found a grief sharing group run by a church. It totally worked! The people there all shared their grief with me, and I returned home feeling ten times worse. Many of these folks had lost a loved one from five to ten years before, but still cried at the mention of the departed person. I didn't wish to be like them, so I decided to take action. I started in again on writing poetry, this time for me. It had worked with our pain, perhaps it would help with my suffering. The first ones were rather dark, about loss and being alone. Gradually, they took a turn. They began to be about how happy I had been. Soon my poems were about being happy again. Quite a few of them were even whimsical; they had dragged me back from the brink of despair. Instead of just being happy, I wanted to be in love again. Cindy was right; I would not do well alone. There were several ways for people to meet, but most of them wouldn't work for me. I had seen ad for an online dating site, and decided to give it a try. There was a questionnaire which contained dozens of questions that were specially formulated to find matches for people, based on similar views of important subjects. I filled it out, and hoped for the best. I received several matches, and I started dating at a furious pace. It was crazy, I was going on eleven dates a week (one each weekday evening, three each, Saturday, and Sunday). It was tiring. Although I was going on so many dates, I was getting more matches than I could handle. I didn't know what to do! I became more selective in my judging of the respondents answers, and of their p

Broken Hearts Make Beautiful Words

Inside this book, there is poetry that will make you feel as though you are not alone in the struggles associated with life and love. They come from the heart of someone who did truly feel alone. Broken Hearts Make Beautiful Words is a book of poetry that is based off experiences with heartbreak, love, loss, and acceptance. Moving forward is hard to do when life crashes unexpectedly, when memories stay behind even when the people don't. You will find understanding in these words and know that even though you may feel isolated and alone, you are really among friends, even when that isn't easy to see. So open one of my books, read it, and join me; our destination may not be the same, but we all make a similar journey.

Mending the Grieving Heart

They say that words have the power to heal, to comfort, and to soothe the soul. And in the midst of grief and loss, these words can offer us the most profound solace. "Mending the Grieving Heart" is a powerful and moving collection of poems on grief and healing. Through these words, we explore the full spectrum of emotions that come with the loss of a loved one: from the raw, intense feelings of anger and despair to the comforting, healing power of acceptance and hope. Each poem is a unique and personal reflection on grief, written by someone who has walked this path and come out the other side. These words offer comfort and support to anyone who is struggling with loss and seeking to find their way through the darkness. With a deep sense of empathy and understanding, "Mending the Grieving Heart" is a collection that speaks to the heart and soul of the human experience. It's a book that reminds us that grief is not just about pain, but also about the love that we shared with those who have passed on. Denial crashes in, Like tumultuous waves at sea, Churning emotions within. Grief follows close behind, An undertow that pulls and tugs, Leaving emptiness in its find. Acceptance takes time, A gentle ebb and flow, Bringing peace to the mind. May we ride these waves with grace, Navigating through the highs and lows, Finding strength in each new space. For the truth is not always easy, But it brings us closer to shore, Where love and healing are waiting, And our spirits can be restored.

Poetry

Continuing the pursuit of truth and God's love, the poet shares her intimate moments through writing and inspiration. With a ready pen and heart, more verses are sure to touch the heart and lift the soul.

A Time of Lost and Forgotten

This book is my heart and soul put to the page. It is about love and heartbreak, about God and a deep spiritual quest. It is about suffering and healing. There are many short writings and poems which should make for a more pleasant read for those who do not like to read. The words contained in this book mean so much to me, I hope that they can mean something for you. Let them stir your feelings, and use those feelings to understand what I mean, or what will be meant for you.

God, You Are Healing for My Soul (Words Straight from the Heart)

Every day people awake thinking they can do things their way. Maybe you were on the right path with God, and you turned away. Suddenly things that were once going well now are going downhill. Those who were your so-called friends have turned their backs on you. Why? Because you lost everything when you placed someone or something ahead of God. This includes your family. I encourage people to write. I have found it to be a form of therapy. A way to express myself out loud. This book represents a group of poems from my Spiritual Guidance Collection about my life that I experienced during the good and bad times. Someone might say the poems are a conversation with God, a form of prayer. My hope is that everyone who reads this book will find their way back to God the Creator.

Tears of Broken Hearts

This book is about me and my journey, it is about you and all of us and I am making this statement simply because I strongly believe that even though we are different beings and we have our uniqueness, we do function by the same universal laws- we have feelings and thoughts, we have triggers that make us act/react in a certain way, we have principles and patterns that shape our behavior and personality. We are all actors, writers, singers, painters, etc. sending a collective message out there in our way resonating with those alike and the best lessons are coming to us when and from where it hurts the most.

Whispers From My Soul

Poetry can be a medicine that heals and sustains. Everyone had their own way of surviving. Some people escape from circumstances in their lives by drinking, doing drugs, falling into depression, and many other things, not knowing that there is a healthier way out and most importantly, seeing hope, peace and light at the end! I survived with everyday life problems by reading and writing poetry. Poetry is a form of expression. Poetry can touch your heart and soul forever making a change in your life for the better. Allowing you to forget about your past failures and hurts and motivating you to move forward into the future with much success and happiness. It's something about poetry that frees the spirit; the words in a poem seem to take wings that can fly in and out of our spirits that only the eye of the spirit and the ear of the heart can define. It is often said that poetry travels straight to one's heart. We all hurt at times, from failed relationships, the death of a loved one, sickness, addiction or whatever. But know that God sees you and all you are going through and He is working on your behalf whether you see it or not. Just trust in God for He has all the answers. My reason for writing "Freedom Love" is to help heal hurting people through my poetry. Letting them know that I understand what they are feeling and what they are going through, but also letting them know that you can overcome the obstacles in your life, filled with peace, love, happiness, success, direction, and answers. Then you will be able to move forward with fulfilling your dreams and future goals, trusting and having faith in God.

Steer Your Way Through Life's Pain and Setbacks

Poems from a Broken Soul Made Whole

Is your heart broken? Do you often hear yourself say, "My life was not supposed to turn out this way"? Our disappointments lead to broken hearts causing a downward spiral of illness in our bodies, souls and/or spirits. Words of Wellness: Poetry to Bless the Brokenhearted Believer expresses "thinking of you" to those who need to know they are not alone during a time of brokenness. It conveys what a store-bought card just can't for those who are grieving over loss, whether the loss is temporary or permanent. When a dream has been deferred, what is, usually, the result? A broken heart. Broken hearts result from God writing a different story for our lives than expected, a marriage ending in divorce, abuse at the hands of those who should show care, the betrayal from a friend, death of a spouse/loved one, the disappointment from a wayward child's actions, hopes and dreams deferred and on and on. The good news is broken hearts do heal, but we must learn to be flexible and willing to enter into the flow of God's dance as He leads. The good news is God is near the brokenhearted, according to Psalm 34:18. As He is close, entering into a dance with Him is more than possible. Be willing to allow LOVE to heal your heart. This book shares the wisdom, given by God to Dr. Vaughn, when her own heart broke. It's time for the broken-hearted to heal! Poetry helps us discover the nuggets of wisdom buried deep within our hearts to help us heal. It is an expressive tool to help the reader and the writer get to the HEART of the matter. Dr. Felicia Vaughn's poetry heightens the reader's awareness of our relational commonalities, even though our experiences aren't cookie-cutter. Each poem will remind you; you are not alone. The LOVER of your soul cares about your heart condition, because only His LOVE has the power to heal broken hearts. Purchase this book as a gift for Valentine's Day, Mother's Day, birthdays or other holidays for those who need hope during times of despair, so broken hearts HEAL.

How to Heal.

Despite unfathomable emotional pain, betrayal by loved ones, and a vicious cycle of yearning for outwardly love and attention, healing of the heart is possible! This book is not just words penned to make someone feel good. Poetry from the Heart is a book of deeply personal expressions that reveal many of my life experiences and the deliberate obstacles that God allowed me to go through to heal myself and to help heal others. Some of the poems were directly inspired by the Holy Spirit. This is the first of several books God put in me. In the process of writing this book, I found answers to questions that I had for years. God told me years ago that I would write poetry and that it would get published in a book that would provide me with answers to many question I had. It would also open my eyes about why certain things happened in my life. As I wrote the poems, God allowed the mysteries to unfold. And just as He told me I would, I found the answers that blessed me. The poem Where is God When it Hurts? is the one that inspired me most and triggered the birthing of this book. I went through a vivid time in my life that the only way healing came was through writing what I was feeling. Out of the writings came Poetry from the Heart. For this I am so grateful. I pray that this book will be a blessing to every hand that holds it and every soul that receives it. May it bring wholeness and healing to every part of you and help to lay the foundation for discovering the answers to questions that you, too, have pondered in your heart and never shared with anyone. ... BUT GOD HE THOUGHT I WAS WORTH SAVING To God be the Glory

Greatness in a Broken Heart

Broken bones mend. Flesh wounds heal. But where is the emergency room we can rush to when our hearts are broken? Divorce, adultery, spousal abuse, childhood sexual abuse, and addiction to alcohol, drugs, or pornography tear deep, gaping holes in the most tender of organs. There's no bandage and no surgery that will heal these wounds of the soul. However, forgiveness, mercy, and grace become a soothing balm in restoration. Whether you are the victim of a broken heart or the perpetrator of the harm, these poems will assist in your spiritual healing.

REMEDIES FOR THE BROKEN HEART

"Sincerely, A Broken Heart" was simply a therapist. A distraction from reality that allowed me to speak freely. It was the imaginary friend I was ashamed to have, yet it slowly blossomed into a written reflection of my deepest thoughts. Without any intention of becoming a book, it was nothing more than a journal that promised to keep my secrets. With my intrepidity and faith entitled to every phrase, it became a collection of words I was always afraid to say. Among each poem, a piece of myself is revealed and I have high hopes that this journal of mine will help you accept yourself for your known or unknown talents, as I've accepted mine.

Poetry from the Heart

Within these pages you will find the unfiltered and spirit filled words of my soul. Some of these were written in the depths of depression while others were written to capture the fleeting moments of hope, light and empowerment. Some are directly related to my personal healing journey with Lyme and others are simply a tribute to life in this world as a soulful and highly sensitive woman with dreams larger than the Universe itself. There is no right or wrong way to experience this collection of thoughts. You can read it from cover to cover, you can use it to accompany your morning tea by intuitively flipping to whatever page feels right in the moment. There is no table of contents, no order, no expectation, no pressure, and no preaching within this bound collection. It is merely a glimpse into the soul of a woman finding her way in life and sending love, light and healing to those she encounters. Let these words fill your soul, cradle your heart and ignite within you a sense of passion, purpose and above all...magic. Write in the pages, doggy ear the corners, let it get cooked in the sun. This is a co-creation. I invite your thoughts, your feelings and your energy to dance among my words and blanket these pages like the stars do in the sky. Don't just read what is written. Feel it. Taste it. Live it.

A Trilogy of Healing

Sincerely, A Broken Heart
