the head and the hair

draw a line for the nose coloring stage

try to block in the outer silhouette pick up the color pencils measure every previous mark erase the graphite lines a little take my needle eraser and lightly dab harmonize all the colors looking for a lightish blue color fill them out with a darker value pick a warmer color filling in the shadow shape along the neck shade the hair the entire shape of the hair fine tune the drawing a little establish the local colors establish the local color establish a color for her lips tweak the color deepen the value of the hair carve out the details establish the local color of her skin bring this rosiness into the nose bring some warmth into those areas over with that shadow color darkening the white of the eye strengthen the rosiness along the cheek try this kind of olivey green neutralize it with a brown color repeat the colors that you have already used in your piece draw the shape

treat the hair a little bit differently from the face add a bit of a yellow fill in the gaps

set up the foundation introduce a third color into that transition area bringing another color into the mix using it for the creases in the eyelid not using correct skin tone colors so gray shading on the white of the eyes outlining the sides of the nose outlining a very harsh line in the center blend out all of those messy pencil strokes get into the white crevices of the paper using the right colors for those shadow tones on cheeks trying to draw in every strand of hair and using the black pencil attach a link to the reference photo in the description pull up big clumps of highlights scrape away very lightly the layers of colored pencil getting the structure of each of the different parts of the eye put gray in the white of the eye pick colors for skin tones moving on to the eyebrow building it up with browns pull up some little highlighted areas build up the layers of colors building up some of the shadows around the eyes lay the initial layers down in a certain direction apply a lot of pressure to your pencil shadow tones built up some skin around the mouth line between the lips and the skin add some extra details filling the skin applied a little bit of the other colours added the highlighted color building up the layers adding the highlights add a bit of a glow avoid putting a lot of pressure onto the pencil building up in light layers integrate those hairs into the middle parting adding some loose hairs going down into the face repeat the same process for the bottom of the hair look at the hair in terms of clumps adding the flyway hairs around the outside
